65% of Budget Pledged by 35% of People

FROM OUR PASTOR'S PEN . . .

Your response to the LOYALTY DAY program was magnificent, and we have every reason for being encouraged by the results. While it is true that the heavy downpour of rain kept many away from the services, all of us who did attend were doubly blessed by the additional showers of a spiritual nature which God sent in all the services.

Our commitments, made in faith, are but an expression of the measure of support which we intend to give to our church in 1951. Many will give more. Some may find it necessary to cancel their pledges. Let it be understood by all that we are not lessening our emphasis upon the voluntary principle in our church life. We are continuing the policy of long standing in this church whereby we venture forth by faith and depend upon the Lord's power, expressed through human instrumentality, to accomplish the appointed task. We shall be effective as servants and made to rejoice as His children to the extent that the love of God constrains us in all things.

The other day a very dear friend asked: "Preacher, after a year with us, are you still glad that you came to Pensacola and to our church?" I don't have to tell you my answer for you know, as did he, that we are grateful to God for the privilege of living, loving and serving with such a wonderful people. We thank God for each and everyone of you.

The challenge for advancement and development which is ours as a church adds lustre to the joy of being your pastor. There are precious lives to be won to Christ, others to be strengthened in their Christian experience, a never-ending ministry of love and comfort to be performed in these dark days in the world's history, and a stupendous building program to be completed for those who follow after. The time is short. This is our day of God given opportunity. May "Onward with Christ" be our aim.

Pray for your pastor, for your educational director, for your church staff, for the host of elected officers, for the success of our entire program, for evangelistic victories as we approach the time of simultaneous revival, for God's strength in all things and for God's will to be done as His kingdom comes in the hearts of men. We shall be praying for you.

HAVE A PART IN LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING

The W. M. S. is engaged in a most meaningful activity this week as they meet to pray for the world and our missionary program. The goal for the Lottie Moon Offering is $1,000. Give today.

Victory is in sight as we enter the second week of our 1951 Budget Loyalty Campaign. Although many of our people were kept away because of the rain and other circumstances last Sunday, 65% of our total budget has been underwritten by the 588 members and friends who have returned their pledge cards to the church. More cards are being received in each mail delivery.

We know that many others have their cards signed and that these will be brought to the church on Sunday. For the convenience of this group, we are continuing our Loyalty Day program through this coming Sunday. Opportunities to present your commitments will be given in all services on Sunday. The miniature of our church building will be in the foyer of the church. Cards may be placed in it as one enters the sanctuary.

After Sunday, every member canvass teams will visit all who have not indicated their intentions for next year.

BAPTISTS CHURCHES DO SUBSCRIBE THEIR BUDGETS

Broadway, Knoxville, Tennessee —

"Budget oversubscribed by $5,200.00 in one day."

Broadmore, Shreveport, Louisiana —

"Held open house on Sunday afternoon — membership came to the church and oversubscribed the budget."

First Baptist, Pineville, Louisiana —

"Budget oversubscribed by $23,000."

First Baptist, Dallas, Texas —

"$359,087.20 subscribed in one day."

First Baptist, Jacksonville, Florida —

"Feel like shouting. Budget oversubscribed."

First Baptist, Gaston's, North Carolina —

"To God we give the glory. Budget is oversubscribed."

AND WE WANT TO BE ABLE TO ADD THIS: "First Baptist Budget oversubscribed through every member participation."

What Think Ye of Christ?

Pilate, what do you think of this man? "I find no fault in him at all."

Judas? "I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood."

Centurion, what is your testimony concerning this One? "Truly this was the Son of God."

Demons, what is your word? "This was the Son of God."

John the Baptist? "Behold the Son of God that taketh away the sin of the world."

And John? "He is the bright and morning star."

Peter? "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Thomas, what is your testimony? "My Lord, and my God."

Paul, what do you think of Christ? "I count all things loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord."

Angels in heaven, what is your testimony? "Unto you is born a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

And our Heavenly Father? "This is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased."

TWENTY-ONE million people within the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention live outside of easy reach of a Baptist church.

FIVE times as many unchurched people live in the urban areas as in the rural areas.

Because of Your Love

After graduation exercises at the University of Shanghai in July, one young graduate placed a beautiful pin on the coat of Missionary Frank H. Connely, saying: "Every time you see this pin, I want you to remember that I found Christ because of your love."

Brotherhood

"Have we not all one Father? Hath not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother?" (Malachi 2:10).

It is said that high above the earth, with its clutter and confusion, all mortal sounds blend into a perfect harmony—a symphony of the spheres. Even so, high above our creed-prattle, our shrieking intolerance, our claims to racial superiority, there is a realm of abiding harmony where all men are brothers.

How foolish our petty divisions then become! How vain our lone strivings appear! Did we not all come into the world in the same manner; were we not clothed, sheltered, and fed in one common way; does not the same impartial sun shine upon us all; and shall not the same mother earth cradle our dust when our little day is over?

Verily, life is too short for hate; too hard for creed; too bitter for selfishness; too baffling for misunderstanding; too lonely for unkindness. But, surely, it is long enough for the practice of what we really are, namely, brothers of one another, because we are all children of one loving Father.

—W. WALDEMAR W. ARGOW

THE 1949 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering receipts totaled $1,745,682.81.

Ten Little Christians

Ten little Christians standing in a line,
One didn't like the preacher, then there were nine.

Nine little Christians stayed up very late,

One slept on Sunday morning, then there were eight.

Eight little Christians on the road to heaven,

One didn't like the music, then there were seven.

Seven little Christians got in an awful fix,

One took the lower road, then there were six.

Six little Christians seemed very much alive,

But one lost his temper, then there were five.

Five little Christians wishing there were more,

But they quarrelled with each other, then there were four.

Four little Christians cheerful as could be,

But one got his feelings hurt, then there were three.

Three little Christians knew not what to do,

One joined a sporty crowd, then there were two.

Two little Christians, our rhyme is almost done,

Differed with each other, and then there was one.

One lone Christian won her neighbor true,

Brought her with her to the church, then there were two.

Two earnest Christians each won one more,

That doubled their number, so then there were four.

Four sincere Christians worked very late,

But each won another, so then there were eight.

Eight splendid Christians, but nothing rhymes with "sixteen," so we simply note that in seven more jingles there would be one thousand and twenty-four Christians, which would be quite a churchful!

9,000,000

Nearly nine million copies of the Bible were distributed in 1949 by the American Bible Society. Of this number about five million in eighty-five languages were distributed in this country. Five new editions were introduced last year.

—GREGOR FROM MONKMEYER

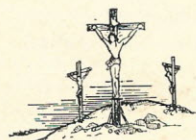

I N D I F F E R E N C E

WHEN Jesus came to Golgotha they hanged Him on a tree,
They drove great nails through hands and feet, and made a Calvary;
They crowned Him with a crown of thorns, red were His wounds and deep,
For those were crude and cruel days, the human flesh was cheap.

WHEN Jesus came to Birmingham, they simply passed Him by,
They never hurt a hair of Him, they only let Him die;
For men had grown more tender, and they would not give Him pain,
They only just passed down the street, and left Him in the rain.

STILL Jesus cried, "Forgive them, for they know not what they do,"
And still it rained the winter rain that drenched Him through and through;
The crowds went home and left the streets without a soul to see,
And Jesus crouched against a wall and cried for Calvary.
