SUNDAY, MARCH 25 — 1216

March 19, 1951

Dr. Carlyle Marney,
Pastor of First Baptist Church
Austin, Texas

Dear Pensacola Friends:

Dr. Sam Hill wrote me about his good Sunday with you recently. He said you were expecting a real meeting. I certainly hope and pray so.

It is Monday morning over here. In a week now I'll be on my way to Pensacola. I'm conscious as I write of how much this old church to which I belong needs revival, too. Will you remember us? We are starting what may be a six or eight week meeting as soon as I return from you. How we need revival! They tell me it has been more than seventy years that we have needed a deep stirring. I only know I need it—and you?

Perhaps Pensacola can give us what we need through me. I come to you conscious of my own needs, conscious, too, that there is a Gospel I must preach. If the need in me and in you and in Christ meets and receives His gift of power we will have revival there—and you will send in me the same to us here. Pray for us—we are remembering you.

Sincerely,
CARLYLE MARNEY
