A WORD FROM OUR TRAINING UNION DIRECTOR

—Haywood Arnold.

Our Training Union is on the march—383 enrolled—with an average attendance of well over 300 so far this month. There were 64 present in the Story Hour on last Sunday night—they are having the time of their young lives! Mrs. Overman and her co-workers are doing a wonderful job in that department.

Parents have YOU enrolled in Training Union? Sunday night, April 29th, has been set aside as "FAMILY NIGHT." All families enrolled in Training Union will be given special recognition during Training Union Moments on that evening. Let's come out in full force to welcome Mrs. Frank Leavell who will arrive on that evening for the beginning of "Christian Home Week" in our church.

Mrs. Leavell is an outstanding authority on the subjects of marriage and the home. She will teach her book, "Building a Christian Home" each night, Monday through Friday. Other books for the younger age groups will be announced next week.

INTERESTED IN PHOTOGRAPHY?

Those who are interested in photography are asked to get in touch with Mr. Charles Overman under whose direction a Photography Club is being organized in our church. A dark room and necessary equipment will soon be installed in the Senior Building.

Over a period of months, Mr. Overman has been taking pictures of various church and organization meetings at First Baptist. In addition, he has made some beautiful color slides of the church building and of flower arrangements in the church.

The purpose of the Photography Club will be to cultivate interest and use talent in a photographic study of the varied ministries of the church. Many of these pictures will be used in a folder which is to be prepared for use in our enlistment program.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE SUNDAY NIGHT

The ordinance of Baptism will be administered to the candidates in waiting on Sunday night following the evening service. Candidates will meet with the Pastor in the New Member's Class at 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening.

IS GOD IN YOUR WILL?

Christian people should put God in their wills by remembering His Kingdom program with specific bequests. Our influence lives on and on when such objects as the following receive a share of our estate: the local church, the Baptist Hospital, Stetson University, Florida Baptist Children's Home, The Baptist Foundation, Seminaries and Mission Boards.

We are fortunate in that Mr. Dixie Beggs is a director of the Baptist Foundation. Any questions which you have may be referred to him.

* * *

The Reverend McCoy Bynum, Associational Missionary, will lead our Prayer Service on Wednesday evening. We welcome him to this church.

GET NEW

Joy

I remember with keen delight
How my heart was thrilled that night
When Jesus came into my heart.

What a joy unspeakable came,
And my life was not the same
After Jesus came into my heart.

Lord, let my soul be filled anew,
As I turn my face to you,
With Jesus deep in my heart.

Give me joy—new joy—today
As Jesus now passes this way.
Let Jesus Revive my heart.

CHRIST BRINGS NEW JOY

"THE JOY OF SALVATION" will be our pastor's sermon subject Sunday morning.

TRAINING UNION CONVENTION TO MEET NEXT WEEK

The first of six Training Union Conventions will be held in DeFuniak Springs on Monday, April 23. There will be afternoon and evening sessions in the First Baptist Church. This is our convention. Let's be well represented.

Our Pastor is to be the keynote speaker in each of these six conventions. From DeFuniak, he will accompany our state leaders to Tallahassee, Starke, Lakeland, Ft. Lauderdale and Cocoa. "CHOOSE YOU THIS DAY" is the convention theme.

NOW VOTE!

Did you register to vote? If so, by all means vote on Tuesday, April 24. Every Christian who is qualified to vote should become informed as to the character and qualifications of the candidates for the city council and then vote according to his convictions.
