NUMBER 26

The Wednesday evening Prayer Services are always well attended in this church. With so many people visiting and vacationing, I must confess that I approached the service on the night of the 4th of July with some misgivings as to the attendance. It was certainly gratifying to have more than 100 people present in the service. We had a good time together and God blessed the hour.

Why not make the Prayer Service a family MUST? This service is, and must continue to be, the spiritual thermometer of the church. Warm hearted, spiritually potent, organizationally vigorous, evangelistically fervent, enthusiastically missionary churches have great Prayer Services through which God speaks to the people.

Pastor, deacons, church officers, teachers, leaders and all others are better fitted for constructive service and useful living after spending this hour with God's people in God's house.

"Christian Assurance" will be discussed on next Wednesday evening. God has made it possible for His children to have this assurance. He wants us to know that we are saved. Come with a prayer at 7:45.

THE CITY CHURCH

"God bless the church on the avenue
That hears the city's cry
The church that sows the Seed of the Word
Where the masses of men go by;
The church that makes, midst the city's roar,
A place for an Altar of Prayer,
With a heart for the rich—a heart for the poor,
And rejoices their burdens to share.

"The church that's true to the call of Christ
Who wept o'er the city's need,
And who sent his disciples to labor for Him
Where the forces of evil breed
The church that gives and the church that lives

As seen by the Master's eyes—
God bless the church on the avenue
That answers the city's cry."

—Ralph Walker.

PULLING TOGETHER

A horseman once went to Henry Ward Beecher, the great preacher, and said, "Mr. Beecher, I have a good family horse I want to sell you. He is a good saddle horse, a good buggy horse, and a good carriage horse.

"He works double with any other horse and on either side of the tongue. In short, he is a good all-around horse and a good team worker . . ."

Mr. Beecher replied, "My friend, I can't buy your horse, but I would like to have him as a member of my church!"

Queer thing, but we always think every other man's job is easier than our own. And the better he does it the easier it looks.

IN HIS OWN WAY

In His Own way they come,
The answers to our prayers,
Not always as we thought they would,
Not even as we felt they should
But in the wisdom of a God
Who understands and cares.

In His own time we see
The things His love has planned.
And when we find that they are best
We wonder that we did not rest,
But fretted since we could not see
The workings of His hand.

Oftimes he soon would send
The answers on their way,
If we would take Him at His word
Rejoice that our prayers were heard
And that His love had planned the answer
Ere we knelt to pray.

—Barbara Cornet Ryberg.

THE LORD'S SUPPER WILL BE SERVED SUNDAY NIGHT

"No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light."

—Luke 11:33.

YOU DON'T DRIVE YOUR NEW CAR DOWN AN ALLEY

Don't Hide Your Christianity

The greatest sermons do not come from the pulpit. They come from the lives of men and women; from your life and mine. It is for us to decide what kind of sermon we preach. Our Christianity is not something to be put on for appropriate occasions and then carefully hidden away. It is our everyday life. In our home, our office, our place of business, on the street, it is a Presence within us. Wherever we may be, whatever we may be doing, we are witnessing. Should we not shout our love for Christ by the way we live? All of us may not be able to win the lost with words, but we never know how many we win by example. We display the possessions of which we are proud. Is not Christ our greatest possession?

FORGETTING GOD

I forgot my Lord in the summer time
Just at the time I was needed most;
I was not away, but on each Lord's Day
I failed to be at my post.

I forgot my church in the summer time
As I lazily lay in bed;
While the faithful few had my work to do,
And I was spiritually dead.

I forgot my pledge in the summer time,
When He needed it most of all;
While my cash was spent, I was pleasure bent,
Just off duty for God till fall.

If my Lord should come in the summer time
When from duty to God I'm free;
What would I do when my life is through
If, by chance, He should forget me?

—J. E. Harvey.

DON'T TELL ME

Don't tell me what you will do
When you have time to spare;
Tell me what you did today
To ease a load of care.

Don't tell me what you will give,
When your ship comes in from sea;
Tell me what you gave today
A fettered soul to free.

Don't tell me the dream you have
Of conquest still afar;
Don't say what you hope to be,
But tell me what you are.

—Grenville Kleiser.
