OUR PASTOR'S PEN . . . . .

This week of intensive study and work under the guidance of competent leadership has fitted our church for a larger ministry through our expanding Training Union Program. With all the earnestness at my command I would urge parents to be in Training Union with their children and in the evening worship service each Sunday night. All other Adults, not physically incapacitated, are likewise urged and counselled to be present.

"This has been such a good day"—words spoken by a member as she shook hands with the pastor at the close of the service last Sunday evening—seemed to appropriately describe that day, for God's unmeasured blessings had been experienced and the loyal devotion of throngs of people had been expressed in their presence and participation. Congratulations to the Sunday School upon breaking the 1000 mark again, and to the Training Union upon going beyond the 350 mark Sunday evening.

Situated in the heart of this growing city and with a rich heritage from the past, First Baptist has a mission to perform in reaching more and more people for Christ and His church. This is a task to demand the best from all of us in service to Him who made His best gift to us at Calvary.

ROUND - UP DAY SEPT. 30

TO A TEACHER

You, who give yourself so earnestly Sabbath after Sabbath without pay
In either gold or silver of the realms,
Remember this: there is a chance today
That in your giving you may give, un-priced

To some heart, a new vision of the Christ.
Remember that the careful words you speak

May cling in memory a lifetime through;
That a quick gesture to accent a truth
May make an imprint on some mind, of youth;

That if there is a new thought you can bring

It may unseal some hitherto dry spring.
And if you please the Master at your task
There is no greater thing the heart can ask.

—Grace Noll Crowell.

Some people have the right aim in life
but they never pull the trigger.

* * *

Between the great things we can't do and the little things we won't do, the danger is we shall do nothing at all.

WHAT DO YOU READ?

In the cattle-grazing country there is a weed known as the loca weed. It is pleasant to the taste, but has no nourishment. Once cattle taste this weed, they return to it again and again, and will not eat good food so long as the loca can be found, and finally they starve to death.

Much that the American public reads is like the loca weed. The mind becomes saturated with the exciting but unwholesome trash until it becomes immune to character-building reading.

“Man is as he reads.” What we read builds or destroys us. We do not always perceive it, but we fashion our ideas according to the ideas of others, and the most impressionable ideas are derived from books and magazines. Hence how important it is that we exercise great care as to character of our reading.

HEAR DR. NEWPORT SUNDAY NIGHT

Our guest preacher in the Sunday evening worship at 7:30 will be Dr. John Newport who has recently been added to the faculty of the New Orleans Baptist Seminary. Yet in his thirties, Dr. Newport has had wide experience as the pastor of strong churches in Mississippi and Oklahoma, and a professor in the graduate school of Baylor University. In addition to the doctorate from the Southern Baptist Seminary, Dr. Newport has spent a year in graduate study in Edinburgh, Scotland.

PASTOR IN REVIVAL

Dr. Skiles is to be the preacher in a week of revival services with the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church in Knoxville, Tennessee. He will fly to Knoxville Sunday afternoon and preach in the evening service there. Then, on the 23rd, he will return to Pensacola after the morning services in Knoxville in order to be with us at the evening hour.

Let us remember our pastor in prayer while he ministers in Knoxville. We are thankful for the privilege of sharing our pastor with others.

BUDGET COMMITTEE REQUEST

The Budget Committee requests that all suggestions from the various departments and organizations be turned in to the church office or to the chairman, Mr. S. L. Davis, by Sunday night. Members of the church may feel free to make suggestions concerning the budget for 1952. Your committee desires to present a budget to the church which will reflect the spirit of all the people.

ELECTION OF DEACONS TO BE ON SEPTEMBER 30

On Sunday morning, September 30, it will be the responsibility of the congregation to select ten members to serve as deacons for the next three years. The term of service for that number of our thirty active deacons will come to a close this month. We should be much in prayer that the leadership of the Holy Spirit may be followed in this important matter.

DO YOU REALLY PRAY?

A little lad was kneeling at his grandmother's knee in prayer. "If I should die before I wake" said Donnie — "I pray," prompted the gentle voice. "Go on Donnie." "Wait a minute," interposed the small boy, scrambling to his feet and hurrying away downstairs. In a few moments he was back again, and dropping down in his place took up his petition where he left it. But when the little white-gowned form was safely tucked in bed the grandmother questioned with loving rebuke the interruption.

"But I did not think what I was saying grandmother; that's why I had to stop. You see, I'd upset Ted's menagerie and stood all his wooden soldiers on their heads, just to see how he would tear around in the morning. But, 'If I should die before I wake' why — I didn't want him to find them that way, so I had to go down and fix them up. There are lots of things that seem funny if you are going to keep on living, but you don't want them that way if you should die before you wake."

REMEMBER . . .

When you come to the Red Sea in your life.
Where, in spite of all you can do
There is no way back, there is no way round,
There is no other way but through.
Then trust in the Lord with a faith supreme.

Till the night and the storm are gone,
He will still the winds, He will part the waves,
When He says to your soul, "Go on."

SUNDAY ISN'T SUNDAY

I know a thousand things to do when Sunday rolls around.
But most of them will interfere with Worship I have found;
If I use the day for pleasure I have conscience in the lurch,
For Sunday isn't Sunday, Unless I go to church.
A man may tinker with his car,
Or take his shotgun out, Or he may grab a rod and reel
And try to catch some trout;
A woman has her household tasks, Like mending socks and shirts.
But Sunday isn't Sunday To those neglecting Church.
To those We can follow inclination
And just loaf around all day.
We can eat and sleep and eat some more
But take no time to pray; The habit of indifference
Will any soul besmirch, And Sunday's never Sunday, Unless we go to Church.
