TOO MUCH TIME?

An Alabama Pastor did some figuring after he had persistently heard the complaint, "There are so many meetings at the church every week! They want us to maintain family worship, to attend Sunday School, Training Union, two Worship Services on Sunday, and the Church at Prayer on Wednesday night. Then I'm expected at the Officers and Teachers supper on Wednesday, and they want me to visit on Thursday night!"

The pastor did a little basic arithmetic and here is the result:

30 minutes for daily family worship . . . 3½ hours.

S. S. Officers and Teachers Meeting (including supper) . . . 1½ hours.

The Church at Prayer . . . 1 hour.

Thursday Night Visitation . . . 1½ hours.
Sunday school and Morning Worship . . . 2½ hours.

Training Union and Evening Worship . . . 2½ hours.

Preparation and Study, Sunday school and Training Union . . . 2 hrs.

TOTAL . . . 14½ hours.

Subtracted from the 168 hours in each week, 153½ hours remain. Work takes 40 hours. If we sleep 8 hours a day, this takes 56 hours. This leaves 57½ hours for MYSELF, or almost four times as much as a full program of home AND church AND worship requires of Mr. Average Member.

THINK THIS OVER!

* * * —Exchange.

God in his mercy may use our troubles, pains, and sufferings for the testing and strengthening of our lives.

* * *

Often the church is guilty of gazing too steadfastly into heaven and not steadfastly enough into the needs of the present world.

* * *

The Christian needs to realize sufficiently the continuing importance of the resurrection.

GREAT DAY SUNDAY

Easter Sunday was a great day in our church. Your presence did much to inspire the preacher and others of the congregation. God will continue to bless us on every Lord's Day and through all the weeks of the year if we will be faithful to Him and to Christ's Church.

Next Sunday will be another memorial to the Resurrection of Christ, as is every Lord's Day. Let us be in our places in Sunday School, worship — morning and evening, and Training Union.

1226 in Sunday School last Sunday. No one else will take your place. Be here this Sunday.

293 in Training Union last Sunday. We can make it 350 this Sunday evening at 6:40.

Dr. Skiles will preach at both morning services on the text, "I seek not yours, but you."

Ralph Chandler, our youth pastor, will bring the message at the evening hour. This service will climax the activities of Youth Week. We thank God for the wonderful youth of our church. Remember them in prayer as they assume special responsibilities on Youth Sunday.

INITIAL RECEPTION HUGE SUCCESS

Everyone had a good time at the first of our quarterly receptions for the new members of the church. The good ladies of the W. M. S. were at their usual best in making ample preparation for the occasion. Home made cookies and delicious punch were enjoyed by all in attendance. We were happy to have a representative group of the 108 members received since the first of the year respond to the invitation to attend this reception in their honor. On every hand we heard expressions of appreciation for the thoughtfulness of the church, the new member's committee and the ladies of the W. M. S. Thanks to everyone. The next reception will be in July.

Quarterly reports have been mailed to all of our people who are "givers of record." Errors should be reported to the Financial Secretary. In response to the action of the church in business session, such reports will be sent each quarter unless the member requests otherwise.

The purpose of these reports is stated on the face of them as follows: "This is an acknowledgment of your gifts for the past three months. This quarterly thank-you note from your church will serve many purposes: (1) It will show you that records are accurately kept by those who serve you in that capacity. Errors should be reported. (2) It will encourage you to systematic giving through the envelope system. This will enable us to meet our obligations. (3) To save each one will give you a record for your income tax return. Thank you for your cooperation."

BRIDGES ALL THE WAY

A tiny girl was taking a long journey, and in the course of the day her train had to cross a number of rivers. The water seen in advance always awakened doubts and fears in the child. She did not understand how it could safely be crossed.

As they drew near the river, however, a bridge appeared and furnished a way across. Several times the same thing happened, and finally the child leaned back with a long breath of relief and confidence. "Somebody has put bridges for us all the way," she said in trusting content.

That is how it is in life. God has built bridges for us all the way. They are his promises. Just last week I heard a man who lives under the shadow of communism pray, "Lord, we are thankful that you are not nervous in the least over your plans."

It is exciting to step out on the promise of God. There are blessings in the uncertainty which places trust in him. There is joy in walking in a way never traveled before. There is satisfaction in knowing that an all-seeing eye is guiding the unknown path.—Ione Gray, Open Windows.
