$1,000,000.00 FOR HOME MISSIONS IN MARCH!!

Since 1895 when Miss Annie Armstrong called for a week to be set aside to pray for our homeland, women and young people in W. M. U. organizations have turned their thoughts to home missions during the first week in March. This year we are to think about "America, the beautiful," to pray for the millions of lost people who live under her spacious skies, to give that the harvest of souls can be reaped from her vast unevangelized regions. During the week all over our convention territory we will be singing

"America! America!
God mend thine every flaw."

Through our prayers and our gifts we can help bring the answer to that petition, for the greatest "flaw" in our land is unbelieving millions. Only through making Jesus' name known can come the realization of the prayer

"America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea."

Many are reached each year through the preaching ministry of our missionaries. Some of these live in isolated sections and travel in all directions to spread the knowledge of Christ. We have a part in winning these people for through the Annie Armstrong Offering we pay the salaries of many missionary preachers.

Special Program Wednesday Night, March 4—Make An Offering

Dr. Lewis Martin Speaks Sunday

In cooperation with the Week of Prayer for Home Missions, we will have as our guest speaker for both services Sunday morning, Dr. Lewis Martin, who is affiliated with our Home Mission Board. His being here will serve as a "kick-off" for the activities of the week. The closing emphasis will be a special offering for Home Missions, which will be taken in the opening assemblies of our Sunday School a week

Special Offering For Home Missions

Our people will have two opportunities to make an offering for Home Missions. The first opportunity will come next Wednesday evening, when our W. M. U. will have charge of the Prayer Service. Then, on the following Sunday, March 8, all of our Sunday School departments, in their opening assemblies, will take a special offering. Of course, the members of our W. M. U. can make their contributions at the special meetings during the week.

Lament Of the Lost Hymnal

I am the Hymnal who lost his way
I lived at the church until one day
Someone, by mistake, took me away,
And now on the piano bench idle I lay
Oh, that someone would take me back
Back to the church and to the hymnal rack,
Then for a songbook no one would ever lack,
Please, oh please, won't you carry me back?
