By NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR.

Are You Wondering what a pastor does when he takes his vacation to go to summer school? I'll see if I can explain just a little. On the train up I read about half of each of two books I brought along: Barnes: The Southern Baptist Convention, and Pearce: I Believe. I hope to finish both shortly.

Then I have been reading considerably in connection with the three courses I am taking. I and II Samuel are getting a very thorough study under the leadership of Dr. Sam Terrien. In a course in Missions under Dr. Charles Iglehart we are making a country by country survey of the various mission fields today, seeking to understand their background and current Christian opportunity. In the Philosophy of Religion with Dr. Paul Tillich we are trying to face and understand some of the problems of existence that men meet day by day.

Along with that I am trying to do some extra reading and study as I make tentative plans for my fall preaching. By the time I get home I hope to have a pretty good idea about my pulpit ministry through December. In this, of course, the pastor is dependent upon the leadership of the Holy Spirit. I have learned in the past that changes will take place in this tentative preaching program, but that if the Lord is given a real chance to guide, some fairly well defined subjects will be clearly settled upon well ahead of the actual preaching dates.

Friends mean a lot to each of us in life. I've seen a number of old friends since leaving home, and I am making new friends. For example, I have seen again Dr. Wayne Oates, of our Louisville Seminary, and Dr. John Slaughter, formerly of Birmingham, First Baptist. Then, for the first time, I have met Dr. John Allen Moore, who is teaching Missions and Church History at our Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board Seminary at Zurich, Switzerland. I have met, also, Professor Ward, of Louisville.

Then, last Saturday night as I feasted on a hamburger and milk shake (yes, I could have left the shake off), a lady seated beside me spoke and asked me if I knew whether one could get meals there on Sunday. That opened the door to conversation. She is an Atlanta school teacher who lived in Greenville, S. C., when we lived there. And her son is Louis F. Carson, B.O.Q. 600, NAS, Pensacola, Fla. And, of course, she was anxious for some of our people to contact him and get him to First Baptist Church. I assured her that we'd do that. Now since I've given you his address, and I'm away, what about several of you writing him and getting him out. You know how Mothers are. She would appreciate it, and I will, too.

ON TO VICTORY

V-10

July 18 - September 26

After a review of the present status of our Sunday School, the following STEPS TO VICTORY, a Ten-Week program of Visitation, Enlargement, and Evangelism, has been adopted by our Sunday School for the remaining 10 weeks of this Sunday School year.

I. Absentees

Every Absentee contacted Every Week

    By Group Leaders in Young People's and Adult Classes

    By Teachers in younger Departments.

II. Visitors

Every Visitor who is a prospective member visited during the following week.

III. Visitation

(A definite time

(Make definite assignments

(Expect definite reports

2. In July—every class will set some definite time and plan for visitation and, in addition, will cooperate with the church-wide VISITATION DAY on July 30. August—every Department will plan for some definite visitation and, in addition, will cooperate with the church-wide VISITATION DAY on August 27. September—Thursday of each week will be observed as VISITATION DAY.

3. Every person visiting will seek to bring back complete census information on every member of the family visited.

IV. A Re-Vitalized Wednesday Night Program

1. We will make a definite effort to get our Officers and Teachers to attend our Wednesday Night Meetings.

2. We will check up every Wednesday Night on progress attained. The General Superintendent and Assistant to the Pastor will meet with a different department each Wednesday Night on a definite schedule to check up on progress.

V. Enlargement

As I See It!

Sunday School Attendance

Our Sunday School attendance for the last two Sundays has been below that for the same Sunday a year ago. Our average for the year is below that of last year. And this is the year when Southern Baptists are seeking to do MORE than ever before. Let us do our best during the remaining two Sundays in July, and then plan to do even better with the return of our Superintendent and Pastor in August.

On To Victory

Elsewhere in "The Builder" this week, you will find an outline of the STEPS TO VICTORY Program which has been adopted by our Sunday School for the last Ten Weeks of this Sunday School year. It is my conviction that we can achieve victory if we are willing to pay the price.

Everyone Can Help

Every member of First Baptist Church can help in this VICTORY EFFORT. You can pray, you can visit, you can encourage, you can attend regularly and faithfully, and if you are an officer or teacher, you can be present every Wednesday night.

Visitation

One of the most important steps to victory is VISITATION. To be worthwhile Visitation must be consistent and persistent. On June 25, the first of our church-wide Visitation Days, we only had seven people to meet for Visitation. Let's have not less than 50 on Friday, July 30th.

Extension Department

We are seeking to get to work on our Extension Department reorganization. For the time being, I shall be directing the work of this department until a Superintendent is selected. I would like to talk with any of our members who feel that they would like to have a part in this ministry. And, we would like to have reported any prospective members, those who cannot come on Sunday morning.

Last Sunday

It was a real joy to have Dr. and Mrs. Guinn with us last Sunday. Dr. Guinn's morning message on "Missionary Imperatives" ought to send us out to do more than we've ever done here at home and around the world. And the Sunday evening message on "The Ministry of Angels" will provide food for thought for weeks to come.
