Off to College—Many of our young people will be going to school soon. Our "Off-to-College" Banquet is scheduled for Tuesday, August 31. It is our way of saying "God Bless You" to our students as they go away.

Mission Pastor Called—Brother Fran' Bledsoe, native of Langdale, Ala., has accepted the call of our church to become pastor of the New Warrington Road Mission. The building is almost completed and work will begin shortly. Brother and Mrs. Bledsoe need our prayerful support as they come to us. He is a graduate of Howard College and the New Orleans Seminary. Our people in the mission area are urged to join the mission pastor in honoring the Lord through this project.

Camps—It is my hope that an enlarged camping program can be sponsored by our church next year. "Camp Inky" has served our Juniors and Young People well.

Five-Year Program—The pastor expects to present a five-year program of goals and ideals to our deacons at their next meeting.

Elected—I want to pledge the four officers elected last Sunday my best support: T. A. Guthrie, Sunday School Superintendent; Haywood Arnold, Training Union Director; Mrs. Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., W. M. U. President; and W. T. Osborn, Brotherhood President.

Missionary Organizations—The Sunbeam and G.A. organizations are going to meet each Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, beginning August 31. The cooperation of parents will enable us to extend our missionary ministry considerably. A missionary church is very dependent upon missionary education. Remember: Sunbeams and G.A.'s, 4 p.m. next Tuesday.

Deacons—The bulletin next week will carry a list of the nominations for deacon that will be presented to the church for voting September 12. *

"GIVING MEANING TO LIFE"

As I See It!

By CLYDE K. BIZZELL

Youth Camp Successful—We enrolled 33 Intermediates, Seniors, and Young People in our Youth Camp. There were 22 girls and 11 boys, most of them from the Intermediate and Senior groups. The 11 Staff Members made a total of 44 people enrolled. In addition to these who were present for the whole time, there were others who participated in portions of the camp program, some who came out to have a part on the program and some young people and adults who came out for part of the sessions.

All of those participating were reminded of the scriptural injunction to "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." This scripture served as our theme for the Camp.

Junior Camp—These lines are written in the midst of our Junior Camp. There are 29 Junior girls and 19 Junior boys registered. There are 16 on the Staff who are staying at the camp. This makes a total of 64, which is two more than we have room for. Two members of the Staff are having to sleep in the dining room.

There are several others who are coming out for portions of the program.

A Word of Appreciation—It would be difficult to express properly our appreciation to all of those who have helped to make our camps successful, but we want to say "Thank You" to: Our own pastor who served as Camp Pastor for both camps; Miss Ernelle Brooks, who led a Missions period each day at both camps and also served as our camp nurse; Rev. J. N. Evans, Jr., pastor of the Augusta Road Baptist Church, Greenville, S. C., who led our Junior Bible Hour and served as Campfire Speaker for Youth Camp, and Mrs. Evans who assisted him in a Discussion Period with our young people and led the Campfire Service for Junior Camp; R. C. Eickler, Jerrell Bunn, and Barbara Arnold, who helped with the music; Robert Pyle and Billy Kennedy who had charge of the waterfront; Ken Andrews, R. C. Eickler, Mrs. Emory Rogers, Miss Barbara Holt and Miss Ernelle Brooks, our Cabin Counselors for the Youth Camp; R. C. Eickler, Ken Andrews, Billy Kennedy, Robert Pyle, Bobby Andrews, Miss Mrs. Hazel Hatchette, Miss Olive Swearingen, Mrs. W. E. Conway and Mrs. George Yarborough, our Cabin Counselors for Junior Camp; Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Lane who planned and prepared good meals for both camps.

There were others who assisted with transportation of the campers and of equipment, and in many other ways.

On behalf of our church we want to say "Thanks" to each of these.

Looking Forward—Some of our campers have asked about having a lengthened camp session. We are hoping to be able to have a full week for each group next year.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR DEACONS

Thou shalt not assert thine authority. Remember the meaning of deacon.

Thou shalt not miss Prayer Meeting, or any of the church services. Your particular service is the spiritual realm. You need the prayer meeting for your own spiritual progress. You need the Sunday School for Bible study and the Training Union for training.

Thou shalt not criticize. Deacons are helpers and criticizing does not help.

Thou shalt not bear false witness. Deacons and their pastor often have to speak confidentially. It doesn't help when this confidence is betrayed.

Thou shalt not gossip. Thou shalt not repeat true gossip and thou shalt not repeat false gossip. Deacons are helpers and gossiping doesn't help.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain as some Christians do. In you it is an even greater reproach.

Thou shalt not seek honor for thyself. Servants don't seek honor. "In honor preferring one another."

Thou shalt not enter any conspiracy. Some church members try to win issues in the church by political maneuvering. You will take every matter to the Lord.

Thou shalt not be greedy after money. Deacons are an example to others in liberality and in their cheerfulness in giving. They are first to testify to the blessings in tithing and are exemplary in all their dealings.

Thou shalt not neglect the poor no matter why they are poor, but shall help all such with thine own alms and with alms of the church.—Selected.

"There is no exercise better for the heart than reaching down and lifting people up."

"A Christian is a person who makes it easier for others to believe in God."
