GUEST PREACHER SUNDAY

The Rev. A. L. Cox, our Associational Missionary, will be the guest preacher at all of the services on next Sunday.

Before coming to Pensacola, Mr. Cox was Public Service Director of the Radio and Television Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlanta, Georgia. He had been pastor of churches in Johnson City, and Harrisburg, Illinois.

Before moving into thier new home purchased by the Association, Mr. and Mrs. Cox were members of our church.

You will want to hear him Sunday. Those who cannot attend Sunday will remember that the 11 o'clock Service will be broad-

Thanks—Members of First Baptist Church want to express to those who sent words of greeting at the time of Groundbreaking Ceremonies. We were particularly grateful for messages from Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Denham, of New York City; Dr. Roland Q. Leavell, of New Orleans; Dr. and Mrs. Skiles, of Abilene, Texas; and Taiichi Iketani of Tallahassee.

Revival—It is not too early for us to keep in mind the revival dates in March. Dr. H. Guy Moore, pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church, Fort Worth, is to be our visiting evangelist. Dr. Moore and I were classmates at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. A recent letter from Dr. Moore indicates that he will not be able to be with us except for one week. We look forward to his directing us in the Simultaneous Revival March 7-13.

Mr. Cox—In the absence of the pastor who is to be in Waynesboro, Georgia, next Sunday, Brother A. L. Cox, our Associational Missionary, is to preach at all of the services. Our sick and shut-in friends will be able to hear Mr. Cox at the 11 o'clock hour over WCOA.

Census—You will be hearing much during the next two weeks about the religious census which our church is to assist with on January 30th. All of the churches of the Pensacola area are engaging in this census in order that we may have up-to-date information to guide us in the Simultaneous Revivals in March. This is one project in which many of the members of our church can take part. We will be counting upon you.

Ridgecrest—Mr. George Pickering of the Boys' Camp at Ridgecrest, North Carolina, is to visit our church on Sunday, January 23. We are looking forward to having him present. He will be available to discuss with parents and boys the possibilities at Camp Ridgecrest. You will recall that last summer we had several of our young men in attendance at the Boys' Camp. This coming summer the Sunday School Board is to begin the operation of Camp Crestridge for girls. It is my hope that a number of our young people will take part in these worthwhile camping programs.

NEW MEMBERS' CLASS

Under the leadership of our Reception of New Members Committee, we began Wednesday Evening a New Members' Class for those who have come into our church during the past year. This class will continue for the next three weeks, with the following subjects to be discussed:

January 19—The Spiritual Ministry of the Church—Rev. Nathan C. Brooks, Jr.

January 26—What Baptists Believe—Mrs. Robert Pyle.

February 2—Baptist History. Mrs. B. F. Keene.

This class meets at 6:45 in the church
