Staff Addition—Last Sunday night the church voted to invite Brother J. W. Blouin to join our staff for three months. He hopes to go on to school then. His work under the pastor's guidance will be in the field of pastoral ministries. He will also help with the congregational music. We are happy to welcome him in this capacity.

North Hill—The North Hill group, formerly served by Brother Blouin, has not yet been organized into a Baptist church. Nor are they officially a mission yet, of this or any other church. Under the circumstances our Associational Missionary, Brother A. L. Cox, was authorized by our church, last Sunday night, to receive into our fellowship those who are properly ready to be received, and to receive as candidates for baptism into our fellowship those who are ready for that. Through Wednesday night 10 had presented themselves by statement of their Christian experience, and 11 had come for baptism. These applications for membership will be formally accepted later. Brother Cox will continue in revival services at North Hill through next Sunday, March 20. We await further developments at North Hill with prayerful interest.

Stetson Singers—We are to have the Stetson University Glee Club to sing in our church at 8 p.m. Monday, March 28. There's something rich in store for us.

The Pastor will be in Washington, Georgia, April 1-8, assisting the First Baptist Church in the simultaneous revival effort in that area. Remember to pray for that meeting.

CHAPEL CHIMES

What was that we said about broken records? We were just kidding before, but we have really shattered all previous records at the Chapel. We thrilled to have 106 in attendance at Sunday School, about 65 participated in the fellowship dinner after the morning service, three were baptised in the afternoon, 42 attended Training Union, and about 15 joined the Church Member's Class during Training Union. Our records were also broken by having $169.80 in our offering, including the revival expense offering.

The revival week was a time of rejoicing with us. Only four public decisions were made, but our prayers shall be constant for those who shall make decisions in the near future. Brother Covington brought us fine messages every evening, and the Sunday services were a great blessing to all who were present. The members of the Chapel experienced a revival, and are ready to step out for the Lord in renewed witnessing and work.

We have divided two more classes in our Sunday school, providing the classes with opportunities for more growth, but completely using all our available space. Pray for us as we seek to minister to ever increasing numbers.
