CHURCH CALLS MUSIC DIRECTOR

Last Sunday morning our church extended an official invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Westmoreland, Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., to join our church staff. The Westmorelands have indicated that they will come to us about the 15th of June, or a few days later. She will serve as Church Organist, while he will direct the music program.

Mr. and Mrs. Westmoreland are both graduates in music from Furman University, Greenville, S. C. Both have Master's Degrees from the Julliard School of Music, New York City, he in Voice, she in Piano. For the past several years they have served in the Music Department of Limestone College, which is headed by Mr. Westmoreland.

At the time of our call last Sunday our new music leaders had a daughter. As of 5 a.m. Monday morning they have a new son, James Wilson. Congratulations to the Westmorelands!

Congratulations to First Baptist Church!

North Hill—It will be some days yet before we can officially announce the results of the North Hill move to become a Baptist mission. Legal details are still being settled.

Congratulations—to Anne Austin who graduated from Mississippi College at Mid-Term and who has joined the staff of the Ruhama Baptist Church, Birmingham . . . to Sam Jordan III for recognition in the contests of the Oklahoma Federation of Music Clubs . . . to Ancil Scull who, with his wife, has been appointed as missionary to Indonesia.

Washington—I am beginning revival services at the First Baptist Church, Washington, Georgia, this Friday night. We will then have services morning and night through Friday, April 8. This is a part of the Simultaneous effort in the Georgia area. Pray for your pastor and the services in Washington.
