By NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR.

Fellowship—I have been made conscious recently of the large number of people who are bearing heavy burdens. With some it is physical illness! Others have suffered bereavement! Then, of course, there are those who are facing family problems, personal sin, major choices, and other matters. I have been impressed with the necessity for maintaining a rich Christian fellowship here at First Baptist.

In the final analysis it is the Lord, himself, who will supply our needs. We must not forget his "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Thank God, we may turn to him!

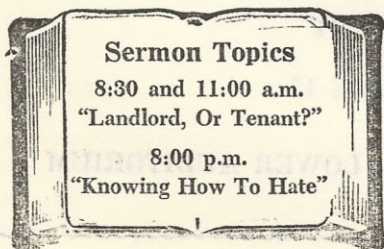

Let us not forget, however, that He often uses human agents to meet human need. We have the privilege of loving one another, of praying for one another, of being patient with one another. We can have much to do with bearing one another's burdens.

The Sin of Immediacy was the topic of my sermon to the Junior College graduates last Sunday. How easy it is for us to think that there is wisdom in taking the short cut. Adam and Eve decided that immediate possession of the fruit of the tree in the garden was more to be desired than all of the blessings God had in store. In the end they lost the garden of Eden. Even so, we are often tempted to accept immediate satisfaction of appetites, or popular approval, when God has richer blessings in store for us if we will just stay close to Him.

Attendance upon our Vacation Bible School has not been as large this week as during the school last year. It is not too late to have a part. The School will continue each day, Monday through Friday, of next week.

Library—Circulation of books from our church library is up since the beginning of Bible School. Young people and adults, alike, will profit from good reading this summer.

Alliance—Let us remember to pray for the meeting of the Baptist World Alliance, in London, England, this summer. Several of our members will be there.

WELCOME HOME, STUDENTS!

You Can Help Your Home Church . . .

1. Be a natural, normal member this summer while school is not in session.
2. Be a "faithful visitor" while home on week ends and holidays.
3. Be willing to help in the Vacation Bible School.
4. Fill your place in the choir. We need you.
5. Be willing to substitute as a teacher in Sunday School or take an active part in your Sunday School class.
6. Be active in the Baptist Training Union.
7. Be a loyal, participating, contributing member of the church in the community after graduation. —Copied.

Our Honored Graduates

In addition to the graduates listed in last week's Builder we want to add the name of Miss Anne Austin, who received her degree from Mississippi College at Commencement, having completed her work in January, 1955. She is now working as Financial Secretary at the Ruhama Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama.

If you know of other names that should be listed, please call the Church Office.

VACATION RESOLUTIONS

Why not make some resolutions for the summer that will honor Christ and strengthen our church.

1. If I take a vacation from home, I won't take a vacation from God, the Bible, prayer and witnessing.
2. If I have to be absent from my job at the church some Sunday, I'll notify the officers in plenty of time to see that the job is done by a prepared substitute in my absence.
3. I'll be faithful in my tithes and offerings during the summer months.
4. I'll do my part to see that my church actually climbs this summer, that we have a "Summer Hump" instead of a "Summer Slump." —Copied.

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

Last week's Builder carried the complete schedule of Florida and Southwide Assemblies for this summer.

We are especially anxious to have some of our people at Ridgecrest for one of the Training Union weeks and one of the Sunday School weeks. Arrangements can be made if we will decide now. If you are interested, please talk to me about it real soon.

We are hoping that someone from our church can go for Library Week.

We are hoping to have a good group of our young people to go to West Florida Assembly July 18-26.

SUPERINTENDENTS' MEETING

Our June Superintendents' Meeting will be next Monday night. We will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Lower Auditorium.

NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Theme of the Officers and Teachers meeting next Wednesday will be "Choosing Methods." A good group of our officers and teachers are receiving inspiration and help from the five filmstrips on the Improvement of Teaching.

Don't miss the last three!

Training Union

There were 16 from our church attending the Training Union Associational Meetings on Monday Evening, in addition to three from Circle Chapel and four from North Hill.

All of those who attended came away feeling that they had profited by being present. Those who were not present were the losers.

The programs being presented in our Adult unions for the first three Sundays in June were written by our pastor. They seek to show how our Baptist churches work together in carrying out the Great Commission.

Adults, don't miss the next two Sundays!
