Viewpoint

By NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR.

The Men of the Church really played Santa Claus to the pastor. At the close of the Brotherhood meeting, December 20, I suddenly found myself the recipient of shoes, socks, a suit, ties, shirts, and all the rest that it takes to "dress up." I am grateful for these gifts, but particularly for your gracious spirit. For these and all the other expressions of your generosity we say "thank you." And that goes, too, for the W. M. U. Mrs. Brooks likes those two place settings of silver that you gave her.

One Way—You have noticed, of course, that LaRue Street has been made one way from Guillemard to Palafox. That means you can travel on the South side of our church only by coming from East to West up LaRue.

Student Night afforded excellent messages from several of our young people. I particularly liked a quotation used by our own son, Nathan III. He said, "Individual greatness is no match for humble togetherness." He tells me that he thinks he got this from Youth at Worship, by Byrd. At any rate, I like it. May the Lord give us a spirit of "humble togetherness" in the new year.

On the Wall in the office of one of our deacons appear the following words: "Worry is like a rocking chair—keeps you busy but it don't get you no place." Wisdom!

Now Is the Time to get ready for our Spiritual Emphasis Week, January 22-29, with Dr. Chester Swor as our visiting speaker.

The Lord's Supper will be observed at the evening service on Sunday, January 8.

The Telephone Company has made a study of our telephone calls in helping us to plan for communication in our new building. You will be interested to know that between 9 and 5 on the two days checked, we had an average of 94 calls each day; 259.9 minutes were spent on the calls. The average holding time (talking time) was 1.4 minutes. A total of 53 calls were not completed. This does not account for calls at other hours. To say the least, Baptists talk.

WHY GRADED CHOIRS?

The following is an acrostic of the above words "Why Graded Choirs?" written and arranged by Ivan W. Baugh, Minister of Music and Education, Southside Estates Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Florida. Baugh has built and maintained a Standard Music Department during 1955. The ideas on the graded choir presented in this acrostic give a graphic picture of the Graded Music Department program as promoted by state and southwide leaders for every Baptist church.

W idens the circle of people in the church.
H armonizes displeasing personality traits.
Y ields music leadership for future years.

G rounds spiritual thoughts in the child's mind.

R eaches more people for church attendance.

A fforders variety in programs.
D evelops good singing habits.
E nlarges the education program of the church.

D eepens the worship experience for the child.

C hallenges youth to work in the church.
H elps the child in emotional expressions.
O rientates the child in music fundamentals.
I mproves congregational singing.
R eveals undiscovered talent.
S hapes young lives for Christ.
