Viewpoint

By NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR.

Your Pastor will be assisting in revival services at the First Baptist Church, Fort Walton Beach, from Sunday morning through Saturday, April 20. I regret that I will miss hearing Dr. Fowler, but I am happy that you can have that opportunity. There will be only the night services during the week time at Fort Walton. Remember to pray for our effort there.

On Tuesday I will drive to Graceville for a meeting of the Convention Committee with the Trustees of Baptist Bible Institute. There are numerous legal and technical matters to be settled before the Florida Convention can take over the school. The meeting on Tuesday is designed to help facilitate the transfer.

Do Not Overlook the presentation of the play, "He Came Seeing," by our Dramatics Committee on Friday night, April 19, at 8:00 o'clock. Clay Davis and his associates did an excellent job at Christmas. I am sure that you can expect just as moving an experience on Friday night before Easter. Plan to attend!

Sermon Topics on Easter Sunday will be: 11:00 a.m., The Resurrection, John 19:39; 20:1; and 7:30 p.m., Some Light On Faith Healing, Luke 8:42.

Our Best is the least we can offer Jesus. Are you satisfied that we are doing our best in visitation? What about our best efforts at soul winning? Is there any one of us who is measuring up to his best in his personal living? Do you think for a moment that we are doing our best in Christian stewardship? I think I know how you have answered these questions. And I believe that I know what you think that Jesus is expecting. Lord help us to be and give our best to Thee.

Over the Goal—The Annie Armstrong Offering for Home Missions has now surpassed the goal of $1200.00 through our church. At present we have contributed $1231.90.

With 300 People Present at the Sunday School Officers' and Teachers' meeting last Wednesday night we should have a "top attendance" at the Sunday School hour this coming Sunday. Our Youth Week Leaders are doing a splendid job of LEADING.
