DR. J. LARRY MAYO TO BE GUEST PREACHER SUNDAY

11:00 A.M.

8:00 P.M.

We are happy to remind you that Dr. Larry Mayo will be our guest preacher Sunday. Larry grew up in our church and is the son of Deacon J. L. Mayo.

He is a graduate of the University of Florida and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

DR. J. LARRY MAYO

He has just completed his fifth year as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Smithfield, North Carolina. The church at Smithfield observed its 115th anniversary last Sunday.

BROTHERHOOD SUPPER MEETING

Tuesday, July 23, 1957
7:00 P.M.

Dr. Larry Mayo will show slides of his visit to the Holy Land.
Mrs. Mayo will sing "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked."

Viewpoint

I Was Interested in a report from Jacksonville indicating that, as of June 30, there are 97 churches in Florida that have contributed nothing during this Convention year to the support of World Missions through the Cooperative Program. Included in this number are two churches from the Pensacola Bay Association. I do not believe in Baptist churches jumping "into line" just because somebody say it's time to jump. At the same time one can not help but wonder what justification any church has for not taking seriously Jesus' commission to go into all the world. No church can do it alone. We have to cooperate in the task if any serious impact is made upon the world for Christ.

A Visit to New York City always impresses me with the bigness of our task of witnessing. One can visit the Billy Graham Crusade at Madison Square Garden, see the black men, the white men, the yellow men, all hearing the gospel together there, and come away with a feeling that some headway is being made in reaching all men for Christ. But, on another night one can walk through Times Square at the hour that the Crusade is in session and feel that there are hoards of people untouched. The vast undone almost overwhelms one. Yet we can not forget that it was to a small handful of men that Jesus said, "Take the world"! And they started out to take it. If they looked at "the vast undone", they at the same time listened to a voice saying, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

When You Stop To Think about it, members of our church are going into a lot of the world this summer. I had cards recently from members who were in Mexico City and in Oregon. Others have visited in California. One, at least, is in Europe just now. Others are all over the map. How strong a Christian impact will the members of our own congregation make for Christ during these days? Let's remember that while Christ may not have called all of us to the vocation of preaching, He has called all of us to be his witnesses. Each in his own way will make the opportunity to do something about the Great Commission as he goes.

Suppose You Stay At Home this summer! You can still share in the world mission task. Remember to pray for those who have gone out in Christ's name. Then, bear in mind that every dollar that you place undesignated in your church envelope helps to "send the light". Your regular gifts not only help to pay for a building, and air conditioning, and salaries, but a part of every undesignated dollar that you give goes for World Missions.

Seeing so many people got me started along this line of thought. If you will lift up your eyes unto the fields, you will see that they are white already unto harvest.

DON'T FORGET TO TURN IN YOUR NOMINATIONS FOR DEACONS BY JULY 29

IT'S SUCH A LITTLE THING

It takes such a little time at the close of a service to speak to the visitor close to you.

Members of the congregation are urged to notice those who stand, and to speak to those nearby at the close of the service.

One of our members received a note from some folks who visited our church recently expressing appreciation for the friendliness shown.

AN APPRECIATED LETTER

A letter received by a member of our church from one of the midshipmen read in part, "I could truthfully say that these past three weeks were the greatest I've ever known since I began my career as a midshipman two years ago."

This group of young men from the Naval Academy were an inspiration and blessing to us.

CHURCH LEADERSHIP ELECTED

At the monthly Business Conference last Wednesday, the following Officers were elected for the new church year beginning in October:
