Power in Service---Humility

Be as childlike as possible. Simplicity is power. Childlike simplicity saves you from self-consciousness. Learn to be so simple, as a humble follower of Jesus, that you give your life into His hands to speak through you or work through you just as pleases Him.

If your efforts are not as perfect as others leave that with Him. To be over anxious to do things so that people will notice and comment upon your efforts detracts from Jesus. Self-exaltation does not go with the exaltation of Jesus.

John beautifully said, "This my joy, therefore, is fulfilled. He must increase, but I must decrease." Be willing to deny self, to forget self and your humility will be a wonderful preparation for eminent service.

A trout fisherman was asked the secret of catching that game fish. His answer was: I have three rules:

1. Keep out of sight.
2. Keep back out of sight.
3. Get still farther back out of sight.
