SUGGESTIONS FOR DEACONS

Every member of the congregation has the privilege of suggesting men to be considered by the Deacons' Nominating Committee. Last week's BUILDER carried the complete information about the procedure for nominating and electing deacons.

Your suggestions must reach the committee by noon, Monday, August 31, 1959. You may use the form contained in last week's BUILDER or in your bulletin. Sunday's bulletin will carry a reprint of this form.

Last week's BUILDER carried a list of the men now serving as deacons and those who are retiring this year and will not be eligible for nomination. You may suggest the name of any male member of the congregation whom you believe to be qualified to serve this church as deacons. Inactive deacons will not automatically be placed on nomination. Their name must be submitted to be considered by the committee.

OUR HERITAGE

Commander Robert E. Sparks, our Training Union Director-elect, spoke at the Associational Brotherhood Meeting last Monday Evening. After relating something of our Baptist heritage, he raised this question, "Shall we add to the capital stock, or shall we be content simply to clip the coupons of the labors of our forbears?" This is a question that each of us ought to ask ourselves.

Commander Sparks and Clifford Lenz both did an excellent job in speaking to this meeting.

EVERYONE CAN SERVE

I found this interesting story in the bulletin of the Dawson Memorial Baptist Church, Birmingham, Alabama:

"Last week I was told by Mrs. Clayton Kyser of an incident that pleased her very much. She and her husband regularly sit in the west transept each Sunday. When the Sunbeams sat there as a group, they moved to the center section. When they sat down, a lady leaned over and asked them if they were visitors. They told her they were new members of our church. She then said, 'I want to know you by name. My name is Mrs. J. W. Beasley.' She wrote her name and address at the top of her bulletin. 'Will you write your name here?' She asked. They wrote their names under her name. She then talked with them, and when the service was over introduced them to all the folks around. They said, 'She went out of her way to make us feel at home. She created a warm Christian atmosphere for us. Mrs. Beasley was honored as the oldest mother present last May. We can serve Christ all the days of our lives!'"

BUDGET COMMITTEE TO MEET

The Budget Planning Committee will meet Tuesday, September 1, 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel. Any church committee or organization which has a special request should be sure that it is in by this time.

NEWS BRIEFS

MARK THIS DATE

September 6-11 for School of Missions. Missionaries speak each evening. Classes for all ages.

W.M.U.

I have just read the article, "A Renewed Sense of Purpose," by Miss Alma Hunt. I would like so much for each member of Woman's Missionary Union to read it. Miss Hunt stated that out of the eighteen who were appointed at the Foreign Mission Board meeting in April, eleven testified that Woman's Missionary Union experiences had been turning points in their lives. The article is in August ROYAL SERVICE, 1958.

I covet so much that each one of us, during the remaining summer months, would have a "renewed sense of purpose" in our work. One missionary said that he remembered more that was taught in Sunbeams and R.A.'s.

I want to say, "Thank you," to Mrs. Henry Ashmore and Mrs. A. R. W. Stoesen for the monthly display in our mission library window.

Let's renew our "sense of purpose" through our fundamentals. Where the knee bends, it is easier to bend the will.

MRS. JOHN BUSEY
