PENSACOLA, FLORIDA

JAMES L. PLEITZ
PASTOR

There's Only ONE WAY

- ★ The pastor cannot bring a revival;
- ★ The evangelist cannot bring a revival;
- ★ The singer cannot bring a revival.

But

IF EVERY MEMBER WILL EARNESTLY AND EAGERLY SEEK A REVIVAL

— make the Revival an object of secret and public prayer,
— invite the unsaved
and unchurched to attend,
— Bring your neighbors
and friends to the Revival.

God will SEND A REVIVAL

MARCH 20-25, 1960

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPHS

WHAT IS A REVIVAL?

"Revive us again that Thy people may rejoice in Thee." (Psalm 85:6).

The word "revival" has suffered betrayal. In its long usage, it has accumulated — as any word will do — various shades of meaning. Some seem to regard it as a conspiracy contrived by our denominational leaders to have something "going on." Others consider it — and have so condemned it — as an "opiate," which provides a means of escape from life's hard realities. Others look on it as an emergency measure, a kind of spare tire to be used when all others have blown out. Some of its alleged friends consider it the church's sole instrument for securing reservations in the Celestial City. And their name is legion who call it a "shot in the arm," as if God goes around injecting a spiritual Vitamin B12 for a temporary pick-up!

In face of such accumulative misunderstanding, a timely query is, "What is a real revival?" A revival worth its salt is a rediscovery of the meaning of God in human experience. This includes genuine repentence of sin, vital faith in Christ, complete surrender to His cross, renewed enthusiasm about His Kingdom, and a resistless urge to win others to His will and way for human life. It is a spiritual awakening that is pure in motive, sane in method and permanent and creative in content. It is an earnest reasoning together concerning our hopes and fears and far horizons. It is the soul's deep answer to the call of God. It is the wandering child's return to the Father's home.

Now such a revival does not begin with the other man. It begins with you. The last best hope of a wistful world lies in the willingness of the ones who are called by His name to humble themselves and pray the prayer of the Chinese Christian: "Lord, revive Thy church, beginning with me!"

Prayerfully,

James L. Preitz Pastor

WHAT MAKES A CHOIR?

What makes a choir a success? The answer is the people in the choir. Very few of the average choir singers in the average church are musicians in the professional sense. Most of these singers would be the first to say that they are not.

People who can sing are what makes a choir a success. Too often people expect too much of themselves and therefore they never join a choir. They never give themselves a chance to let the making of music be a source of joy to them. They have little conception of what can be done with their voice in a choir if they will let it be done, and if they will help it be done. We must always remember that if our efforts are sincere and in the right spirit, they will be rewarded.

Some people never let themselves enjoy the good things of choir singing because they let things keep them from doing so. This is most unfortunate, especially when we stop to consider the fact that those who consistently participate have just as many things that could keep them from participating.

Do not discount yourself as possible choir material. Music is an art that enables people to move closer to their God. Do not let your opportunity pass. Join a choir now!
