An Open Letter From the Pastor

Dear Christian Friends:

In just a few brief days, the month of June will arrive. Of all the months of the year, June is one of the best loved. It is the time our schools are dismissed for the long summer holiday (little do the children realize what a welcomed time this is for the teachers!).

There are, however, those who are not so enthused about the arrival of June. In this group are many ministers. Some churches all but go out of business with the arrival of this month. A Philadelphia church has a marble plaque over the entrance, bearing the words: "Gate of Heaven." Beneath this was the legend on the church signboard: "Closed during June, July and August."

The First Baptist Church is indeed for many the very gate of heaven. Your church is counting on your ALL-OUT support during the summer months. Please be faithful in both your attendance and the giving of your tithes and offerings to support His causes around the world. Your co-operation will make this summer the best one in the history of our church for our precious Savior.

Faithfully yours,

James L. Pleitz Pastor

"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." (Rev. 2:10)

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL FACULTY MEETING TUESDAY, MAY 31

9:30 a.m.—GENERAL FACULTY MEETING in Adult A Department.
10:30 a.m.—DEPARTMENTAL FACULTY MEETINGS.

This will be our only meeting of the entire Faculty. It is our hope that every person who is going to help in this year's school can be present.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WORKERS NEEDED

My dishes went unwashed today,
I didn't make the bed,
I took God's hand and followed
To Vacation Bible School instead.

Oh, yes, we went adventuring,
The Children, Faculty and I
Exploring the Bible,
Its truths we can't deny.

That my house was neglected,
That I didn't sweep the stairs,
In twenty years no one on earth
Will know, or even care.

But that I've helped a boy or girl
To noble adulthood grow,
In twenty years, the whole wide world
May look, and see, and know.

—Louise Crawford

Brotherhood

The men of the church are urged to reserve Monday night, May 30, for the Associational Brotherhood Meeting. This meeting will be held at the Myrtle Grove Baptist Church, beginning with supper at 6:45. Tickets are available now from our Brotherhood President, Bro. Bill Osborn. Get your ticket from him and plan now to be present.

The principal speaker will be Mr. Kermit C. Bradford, an Atlanta attorney.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

For the benefit of the new members—and as a reminder to the others—the kitchen committee provides this information about the procedures for making supper reservations on Wednesday night.

Reservations can be made by calling the church office by 5:00 Tuesday. Cancellations should be made by this time also. The price of the meal is 60c for adults, 35c for children through high school and 25c for children fed in the Nursery.

A person can be placed on the permanent reservation list by calling the church office. In this case when a person cannot come, he must call the church office to cancel the reservation for a specific Wednesday.

For further information, call Miss Betty Sue Holt in the office. The reservations are not handled by Mrs. Manning.

LIBRARY NOTES

"Now I Can Tell," by Quentin K. U. Huang, is a story of a Christian bishop under Communist persecution. Because it is concerned with such things as disloyalty, degradation, mock justice, intellectual perversion, starvation and torture, it is not a pleasant story, but it affords, at uncomfortably close range, a view of practical Communism and the methods by which it has gained control over the Chinese millions.

Bishop Huang's words will make an impression upon all who prize highly the worth, dignity and integrity of the individual in society. Read this book. You will never forget it, and you will be more concerned about those who are behind the Iron Curtain.

RELIGIOUS DRAMA TO BE PRESENTED

At the prayer service hour next Wednesday, a group from the Gadsden Street Methodist Church will present a religious drama entitled "The Story of Barabbas." This play was written by Dr. Clyde E. Miller of Pensacola and was produced and directed by Mr. Kent E. Williams.

Who was Barabbas? What was so important about his life that God intended for us to know? What lesson was his life to teach?

The answers to these and other questions are not fully recorded in the Bible. A great many of the details of his life, deeds, and death are lacking. We may be positively certain that after his path crossed the path of Jesus, he was never the same.
