Joyce L. King	Sarah Jane Williams

Escambia High School

Clyde Thomas Ellis
Linda Frances Kent
William West Roberts

These fine young folks have reached a significant milestone in life. From here I trust they will press on to other worthy goals. The Apostle Paul has a word for all of us: "... I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 13-14).

Please make a special effort to be here Sunday in your place for all the services. Your faithfulness will make Sunday a wonderful day. The Lord is counting on us. We dare not fail Him.

Most sincerely,

James L. Pretty Pastor:

SERMON TOPICS

11:00 A.M.

"The Withered Hand"

(Mark 3:1-6)

7:45 P.M.

"To Be Or Not To Be"

(Luke 9:26)

Library Notes

You will be interested in reading some good books on Africa after hearing Rev. and Mrs. Atnip speak Sunday night. Here is a partial follow-up list:

"David Livingston—His Life and Letters" by Seaver.

"Dr. Livingston, I Presume." This is a biography of Henry Stanley who was sent out to find Dr. Livingston. It is by Anstruther.

"Albert Schweitzer" by Manton.

"The World of Albert Schweitzer" by Anderson is largely a picture book which gives you a very good idea of the work Dr. Schweitzer and his staff are doing.

"Preacher With a Plow" is by S. Cole, the son of American slaves in Alabama, who went to Angola as a missionary and introduced the plow which revolutionized life in that section. It is a powerful argument for agricultural missions.

"Dr. Basil Lee Lockett" by Lockett. He was one of our great Southern Baptist medical missionaries.

"The Moffatts" by Hubbard. They were contemporaries with Dr. Livingston.

These are a few—we have many more. They are all most inspiring and help us to appreciate to some extent the sacrifices and work of these servants of the Lord in bringing the Gospel to Africa.

Brotherhood

BROTHERHOOD LADIES NIGHT

Sunday School

OPERATION HOME STUDY

Sunday will be sign-up day for Operation Home Study 1960. Many of our general officers and departmental superintendents have already signed up. Next Sunday, they will be encouraging other workers and members of our Sunday School to join them in this worthwhile study.

This year's suggested book is "Jesus the Teacher." Many have asked if this is the same book studied several years ago under Dr. J. L. Corzine. The answer is "no." Dr. Corzine taught his own workbook entitled "The Peerless Teacher in Action." Very few of our people have studied "Jesus the Teacher." If you have, we would suggest that you study the alternate book, "Preparing to Teach the Bible," by Dr. Howard P. Colson. Copies of both books and of the questions are available now in the church office.

The due dates for completion of this study are as follows:

General Officers—June 26

Dept. Superintendents and Dept.
Officers—July 10

Teachers—July 24

Class Officers and Class Members
August 7

PUBLICITY DAY FOR VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Next Wednesday, June 8, is Publicity Day for our 1960 Vacation Bible School. Our purpose is to visit the homes where boys and girls live who ought to be invited to attend our school.

Those who live in the Cordova Park area are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Darrell Jones, 141 High Pines Place, Cordova Park, at 3:30 p.m. Others will meet here at the church at 4:00 p.m.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

June 13 - 24

8:30 - 11:30 A.M.

For all boys and girls
ages three through sixteen

MEMORIAL FLOWERS SUNDAY

The memorial flowers for the sanctuary Sunday will be in memory of Mrs. W. A. Mcsley. They will be given by the family.

Your Sundays Belong to God

Music Notes

A WORD OF THANKS

The ministry of music is grateful to Mrs. Robert Sparks, Miss Flo Longcrier, Mrs. S. T. West, and Mrs. Lewis White for their excellent leadership during this choir year. These fine ladies have been responsible for much of the success of our program this year. Your church says, "Thank You."

MUSIC RECITAL

You are invited to attend the Music Recital of the piano, voice and organ students of the ministry of music. It will be Monday night, June 6, 7:30 p.m. in the church auditorium.
