Lest We Forget

Europe's "continental Sunday" has spread to the United States. We are "knights of the road" on Saturdays and Sundays. There is merit in one man's suggestion that the "week-end" should now be spelled the "weak-end," and that our favorite slogan for the weak-end is "Fill'er up!"

Years have passed since the end of World War Two. In the dark hours of these days, most of us made a lot of resolutions about spiritual things. It is so easy now for us to forget. The following article copied should make us think. It was taken from an English newspaper, during the War.

"We have been a pleasure-loving people, dishonoring God's day, picnicking and bathing—now the seashore is barred; no picnics; no bathing.

"We have preferred motor travel to church going—now there is a shortage of motor fuel.

"We have ignored the ringing of church bells calling us to worship—now the bells cannot ring except to warn us of invasion.

"We have left our churches half empty when they should have been filled with worshipers—now they are in ruins.

"We would not listen to the way of peace—now we are forced to listen to the way of war.

"The money we would not give to the Lord's work—now is taken from us in higher taxes and high cost of living.

"The food for which we refused to give God thanks—now is unobtainable.

"The service we refused to give God is now conscripted for our country.

"Lives we refused to live under God's control—now are under the nation's control.

"Night we would not spend 'watching unto prayer'—now are spent in anxious air-raid precautions."

Do we think for a moment that we can escape the judgment of God in America? What will it take to fill our churches on Sunday night and for Prayer Meeting on Wednesday nights?

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPHS

When you read these lines, the first week of the Mississippi Training Union Assembly will be drawing to a close. Please remember to pray for your pastor who has brought the message each evening. Tomorrow night should be the climax of the entire week. I sincerely pray that Christ Jesus will be honored in all that is said or done.

This coming Sunday, the good Lord willing, our family will worship in the First Baptist Church of Stuttgart, Arkansas. (It will be the first Sunday in years that I have not preached on the Lord's Day). Stuttgart is my wife's home, and we are looking forward to a brief visit with her folks.

Dr. Henry Ashmore will bring the message here next Sunday morning, and Mr. Bizzell will preach in the evening. The following Sunday, Dr. Larry Mayo will bring both messages. You are well acquainted with all of these men. They are God's choice servants, and you will not want to miss a single service.

Rest assured that your pastor will be praying for you while he is away from the city. Each one of you has a very special place in my heart, and I thank God for the privilege of being your undershepherd.

Faithfully in Christ,

James L. Pleitz

A TIMELY TRUTH WELL STATED

A very distinguished man once said that there were several occasions when he made it a point to be in his place at Sunday School and church. These were:

1. When it was a stormy Sunday.
2. When it was a pleasant Sunday.
3. When the weather was cold.
4. When the weather was hot.
5. When there was a guest in the pulpit.
6. When his own pastor preached.

It would be well for our own people to take this fine example and follow it this summer.

A REQUEST

Members of the congregation are requested to call the church office when members of your family or others that you know about go to the hospital or are ill at home. The hospitals do NOT notify us about who is admitted. The only way the church staff has of knowing is for someone to tell us. We would rather have several calls than not to know. Your cooperation is needed.

Library Notes

In the book "Live With Your Emotions" by Werner is this quotation from E. Stanley Jones, "Five percent of the people think, five percent think they think and the rest would rather die than think." Rather a harsh indictment, isn't it? I just read an article in a church paper by a Chinese student in the United States who said he could sum up his experiences here in four words: "I learned to think." We have hundreds of excellent books in our Library, all are so worth reading and most of them will cause you to think. How about giving them a try?

MRS. A. R. W. STOESEN

Alcohol tore down in one generation what many generations of culture, wealth, and respect had contributed to the reputation of an outstanding family. Read "What Liquor Did to My Family" in the August issue of Home Life today. Get your copy today.

"HOW MUCH IS YOUR CHILD WORTH?"

"I wouldn't take a billion dollars for my baby!" You have heard it many times. There is no dollar value on those we love. Children are God's gift of creation to us. What shall we do with those whom God has given into our care?

Sometimes a father says, "I'd give anything if this had not happened to my son." Too late we realize that we are to blame for tragic occurrences in children's lives. Can we afford not to be constantly teaching, leading, and influencing rightly these children? It cannot be done alone. We need the help of the church.

Isn't it stupid to allow Sunday trips, television, company or just plain laziness to keep us from bringing our children to the place—the only place—that can help us develop their spiritual and moral lives? They need to know from many sources where to go, with whom to associate, what not to do. A Christian attitude must be places in their consciences. The church and its organizations stand ready to help.

How much is your child worth? You can help increase the spiritual value by bringing your child to church.

TIME TO RE-SIGN

Much praying should be done by each of us asking God to lead us where we should work this coming year.

For those already at work, it is time to "RE-SIGN"—not resign! Don't give up your work for Jesus but take it up anew when the year begins October 1st. When you are approached, be prepared to do God's will in the matter. Let each of us be willing and anxious to say, "I'll be somewhere working for my Lord."
