The Teacher's Psalm

The Lord is my helper, I shall not fear in guiding these pupils.

He leadeth me to the heart of the truth, and prepareth the mind of the pupils for the truth.

He giveth me a vision of the immortality of these lives.

He leadeth me to see the sacredness of teaching His book.

Yes, though I become discouraged and despair at times, yet shall I lift my head, for His promises cannot fail me.

His Word will not return to Him void, and my faith undimmed shall burn through all the coming years.

Thou walkest before me that the seed planted shall grow.

Thou shalt stand by my side on Sunday, and speak through these lips so that these pupils feel the nearness of God.

Thou shalt cause each broken effort to gather sheaves through unnumbered years. My job is full when I know that every effort in Thy name shall abide forever.

Surely Thy Love and watch care shall be with me every day of my life, and some day I shall live with those who turn many to righteousness for ever and ever.

—Rosalee Mills Appleby

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPHS

In the pastor's absence, Dr. Leo Eddleman will be preaching for us next Sunday. Dr. Eddleman is one of our great Baptist leaders. He has served as a foreign missionary, seminary professor, pastor, and is now serving in the capacity of President at the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Dr. Eddleman is truly a great preacher of the Word, and your hearts will be blessed by his messages next Lord's Day.

Please remember to pray for me as I will be preaching in a revival meeting in the North Jacksonville Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Florida. This is a very fine church, and the Lord is using them to reach many people in that city.

Be sure and read closely the remarks by the Interim Minister of Music. Mr. Kennedy is doing a splendid job, and your co-operation will help to make our music program a success. The music Sunday was certainly beautiful.

Dr. Larry Mayo will be coming soon to begin his work at the Warrington Baptist Church. We are delighted to have Larry coming home, and I know God will use him in a marvelous way in this area.

Faithfully in Christ,

James L. Pleitz

NATIONALLY EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED WEEK

Music Notes

Sid Kennedy, III,
Interim Minister of Music

The music program of a church is (or should be) a vital program of that church. Naturally, this type of program requires time—a great deal of time. Recently, there has been some confusion about the amount of time to be devoted to the music and the exact moment at which that time begins or ends. The Church Choir rehearses from 7:30 to 9:00 Thursday nights. Since it is necessary for this choir to sing from four to six different times during the Sunday morning Worship Service, it also rehearses from 10:40 to 10:57 on Sunday morning. This means that the members of the choir should be in the choir room with robes on and music in hand at 10:40. Those who teach in the Sunday School should come as soon as possible.

At present, the Chapel Choir holds its rehearsal from 5:00 to 6:00 on Sunday afternoons, and sings for the evening church service. Their Training Unions will dismiss promptly at 7:00 p.m. to allow them to be robed and in the choir room by 7:05. The Junior High School Choir, which sings for Prayer Meeting, meets on Wednesdays at 5:00 p.m. They also should be back in the choir room at 7:20 ready to sing. The Children's Choirs also meet on Wednesday afternoons at 5:00 under their leaders, Mrs. White, Mrs. West, and Miss Longcrier. These choirs are finished at about 5:45. (Please note that these meeting times are contrary to the announcement made in the BUILDER several weeks ago).

There are many people of all ages in the church who enjoy singing in the congregation and who could make a definite contribution to one of the choirs. Some of these people have sung in a choir in past years and have forgotten what an enjoyable habit it can be. Others have recently joined the church and have kept their musical abilities silent. There is no reason why our choir loft should not be full every Sunday at both services. At the beginning of the church year, begin the habit of singing of God.

Library Notes

For those who would like to pursue further the pastor's sermon subject, "On Growing Up", we have these helpful books in the library:

"The Religion of a Mature Person" by Lofton Hudson is soundly based on Bible truth, interpreting old principles for present day development. Men and women, young and old, who have started out in the Christian way will find help here toward becoming mature persons.

"Personality Through Prayer" by Simon Blocker is another helpful book. What use, asks Dr. Blocker, to pray for the coming of the Kingdom of God in the world when the sphere of the suppliant's inner life is a citadel of enthroned self-interest? In persuasive, evangelical tones, the author clarifies how primal a relation prayer has to a life of effective witness.

Three other books I would mention: "Roads to Radiant Living" by Charles Allen; "Grow Lovely Growing Old" by McDaniel; and "Growing a Christian Personality" by Lofton Hudson.
