"READY FOR CHRISTMAS"

By ALICE HANSCHE MORTENSON

"Ready for Christmas," she said with a sigh,
As she gave a last touch to the gifts piled high,
Then wearily sat for a moment and read
'Til soon, very soon, she was nodding her head.

Then quietly spoke a voice in her dream:
"Ready for Christmas! What do you mean?
Ready for Christmas, when only last week
You wouldn't acknowledge your friend on the street!

"Ready for Christmas, while holding a grudge!
Perhaps you had better let God be the judge.
Why, how can the Christ-Child come and abide
In a heart that is selfish and filled with pride?

"Ready for Christmas, when only today
A beggar lad came and you turned him away
Without even a smile to show that you cared!
The little he asked—it could have been spared.

"Ready for Christmas! You've worked, it is true,
But just doing the things that you wanted to do.
Ready for Christmas! Your circle's too small.
Why, you are not ready for Christmas at all!"

She awoke with a start, and a cry of despair,
"There's so little time, and I've still to prepare!
Oh, Father, forgive me, I see what you mean!
To be ready means more than a house swept clean!"

Yes, more than the giving of gifts and a tree,
It's the heart swept clean that He wants to see,
A heart that is free from bitterness—sin,
Ready for Christmas—and ready for Him!

PASTOR'S PARAGRAPHS

It hardly seems possible that December has arrived and another Christmas season is at hand. Already we are hearing the Christmas music, and although the prospects for a white Christmas are just a bit slim here in Florida, all of us are beginning to feel that warm glow in our hearts which we call "the Christmas spirit."

The year 1960 will soon be history. There are only three Sundays remaining. Are you even, behind or ahead of what you pledged to give for the year? I sincerely trust that everyone of us will try to catch up on our giving if we are behind. If we will all be faithful in this matter during the next few weeks, we will far exceed our budget goal for the year. God has been so good to us. Aside from the material blessings of life, He has showered down many other intangible blessings for which we are most grateful.

Be in your place this coming Lord's Day. There is just no one who can take YOUR place in the House of God.

Faithfully yours,

James L. Pleitz

ATTEND "M" NIGHT MONDAY

Announcing!

DR. CARL E. BATES

Dr. Carl E. Bates will be the speaker for the Training Union "M" Night meeting to be held in our sanctuary Monday, December 12, 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Bates is a native Mississippian, a graduate of Mississippi College, Clinton, Mississippi, and of Southern Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

He has served as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Leesburg, Florida; First Baptist Church, Texarkana, Texas; First Baptist Church, Amarillo, Texas; and now serves as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.

LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING

The Christmas tree in the church dining room this year will serve as a reminder of the Lottie Moon Christmas offering. Each two hundred dollars contributed to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering will light one bulb on the tree. Jesus said, "I am the light of the world." In a very real sense, each light turned on will help to take His message of light and salvation to the world. This year's goal for our church is $7,500.00.

Carry-Over from last church

Library Notes

"The time to begin letting Johnny and Susie learn to like to read is long before they can read for themselves, or even understand what is being read to them. A mother begins feeding her child food for his body the day he is born. The baby does not know what he is taking, or how much or why. The same is true of a child's mind and spirit. Any child old enough to respond to rhythm is old enough to be read to. In his first few years, before he starts to school, the pattern is set for his attitude toward reading in all his future life."—Marel Brown.

We are happy to see so many of our young mothers come and avail themselves of the good selection of children's books we have in our Library. We hope others will heed this advice given in the above article as it is so very, very true.
