PASTOR'S PARAGRAPHS

WORN OUT SOIL

One of my dear friends in the ministry recently wrote of a most interesting childhood experience. Listen as he shares this experience with us:

"When I was a boy, I can remember my grandfather talking to my Dad about certain farms being 'worn out.' These were the days before we had an active county agent to guide and advise concerning the stewardship of the soil. And, most farmers felt like the man in our county who said, 'I don't want no state man telling me how to run a farm, because I done wore out two by myself.'

"However, in the years to come, more and more of our farmers began to realize that those who followed the plan of the county agent, did not move from one farm to another but lived in a prosperous manner on the same farm year after year. What was the secret? It was very simple. All of the farmers had been taking out of the soil and losing the productivity; when it was discovered you could put something BACK, it increased the productivity.

"How many souls are worn out? Christians who have had a rich and radiant experience in the beginning, but now are not bearing fruit, have become stagnant cesspools of malignant thoughts, bitter fountains of acid criticism, peddlers of doom and depressing thoughts, reminders of failures and sad experiences, gloomy clouds of wrinkled experiences, all because something has been taken out but never replaced.

"God's Word admonishes us to feed our souls daily, and therefore keep the balance between what is taken out and what is put back. We can do this in a multitude of ways: daily prayer, daily Bible reading, dedicated service to others, regular Sunday School attendance, regular Training Union attendance, prayer meeting attendance and a host of other ways too numerous to mention."

I am not at all sure who first said these words, but he certainly knew what he was talking about, "You only get out of a thing what you put in it."

I will see you Sunday — 1300 Bibles strong.

Sincerely in Christ,

James L. Pleitz

A GOOD IDEA

Are you wondering what to do with all your Christmas cards? Here is a good idea I read in "Choice Christian Shopper's Guide" that Mr. Bizzell loaned me. Put your cards in a box and each day at your family prayer time, lift a greeting from the box, enjoy it again and remember that friend in a special prayer. Thus, the article says, "the love that came down at Christmas is reflected across the year." I am looking forward to putting this into practice and believe we have just enough to make two go-arounds by next Christmas.

Here are some good books dealing with worry and fear:

"Mastery of Worry and Nervousness"—Sadler.

"Prescription for Anxiety"—Weatherhead

"Live With Your Emotions"—Werner.

"The Conquest of Fear"—King

"Reach for the Sky"—Goodrich. (This has a chapter titled "How to Worry Like a Christian").

INTRODUCING DR. MILLARD J. BERQUIST

Dr. Millard J. Berquist—graduate of William Jewell College and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, from which institution he has received the Th.M. and the Ph.D. degrees. He has also received an honorary D.D. degree from John B. Stetson University, and honorary LL.D. degree from William Jewell College.

After a pastorate of fifteen years in Florida where he served the Riverside Baptist Church of Jacksonville, and the First Baptist Church of Tampa, he was elected to the presidency of Midwestern Seminary in December, 1957. While in Florida he was president of the Florida Baptist Convention and served on the State Board of Missions and in various other denominational responsibilities. He has also served for the past ten years as a trustee of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville.

He has been on several preaching missions to Jamaica and Central America and has for a number of years written Sunday School lessons and Training Union programs for the Sunday School Board. He has also served as president and treasurer of the United Florida Drys and has been deeply interested in the Temperance cause.
