Billy Graham Says . . .

"SUNDAY SCHOOL IS ONE OF OUR GREATEST FORCES FOR EVANGELISM TODAY"

Billy Graham is widely acclaimed as the leading evangelist of our day. His fiery denunciation of sin has rocked audiences from New England to the Pacific Coast. His impassioned pleas for repentance have brought thousands thronging to the altar. Dr. Graham's evaluation of the role of Sunday School in revival should be of prayerful interest to every Christian:

"I'm convinced that the Sunday School is the greatest single agency for teaching people God's Word, as well as a tremendous evangelistic force in its own right.

"A lot of us have been taking Sunday School too much for granted. We've been, too complacent about it. We've lost our vision. We've been sitting with folded hands where we should be on the march for God.

"I want to say to every Sunday School teacher that he is just as much called of God as a missionary to the heart of Africa. He needs to prepare just as diligently—he needs to labor just as earnestly—as if he were carrying the gospel to the most remote spot on the globe.

"I believe that out of the tragedy of this hour, pastors and parents and Christian workers are once more beginning to be in earnest about Sunday School. They are once more taking the offensive—going out to do visitation work; winning boys and girls to Christ. They are seeing that Sunday School should be something more than just a place where church members send their children for an hour every Sunday morning.

"God doesn't intend that revival should be limited to evangelistic campaigns. He can send revival through the Sunday School. He is waiting today for men and women who will work and pray and sacrifice. Waiting for those who have a consuming desire to see others brought to Christ. God is waiting for Christians who will yield to the cleansing, energizing fire of His Holy Spirit."

—The Evangel

Pastor's Paragraphs

You continue to amaze me! I was not only well pleased but actually surprised at our wonderful attendance Sunday. It looks like we need to revise our goal—upward!

As more and more people attend our services, we need to always keep in mind that our great responsibility is is that of winning souls. As the time for the revival approaches, all of us should seek to win someone else to Jesus. I recently read this interesting story about Mr. Heinz. Let me share it with you.

Everyone knows of Mr. Heinz, of the "fifty-seven-varieties," but few know of his zeal as a soul-winner. At a revival meeting one day, the minister turned to him and said, "You are a Christian man, why aren't you up and at it?" He went home in anger, and went to bed, but could not sleep. At the next meeting of bank presidents which he attended shortly thereafter, he turned to the man next to him and spoke to him of the Christian life. His friend looked at him in amazement and said, "I've wondered many times why you never spoke to me about it if you really believed in Christ." That was the first of 267 souls which Mr. Heinz won to Christ after that time.

I'll see you in the services Sunday—1350 Bibles' strong.

Faithfully in Christ,

James L. Pietz

Library Notes

"To seek of Him a right way for us and for our little ones." Ezra 8:21.

I am wondering if parents of young children realize how many good books we have in our Library that would help you immensely in teaching and training your children. Claudia Royal has written a book titled "Teaching Your Child About God" in which she says, "Parents are the most wonderful people in the whole wide world, as they proceed to direct the young heart to the Eternal Father." Here is a radiant realistic appraisal of the lifetime impact of religious development in childhood's most impressionable years.

Some other books on our shelves on this same subject are:

"Beside The Hearthstone" by Sapsley. An inspiring book for Christian parents, with emphasis upon the home. The author discusses the school, the church, the Sabbath, the Bible, prayer, religion, and many other topics.

"Your Child And God" by Robbie Trent. Because of her emphasis on the home, this book should be read by every parent as well as church worker.

"How to Get Along With Children" by Dr. Richardson. This book is rich with sensible answers to the questions parents of every generation ask.

We have many others, so come in and browse around and make your own choice.
