PALAFOX AND LA RUA STREETS

JAMES L. PLEITZ
PASTOR

Commissioned

By MILDRED BROWN DUNCAN

For some there is an open road;
For some there is a gate.
Some are meant to run ahead;
Some are asked to wait.

While some are called to go afar,
Ways of the world to mend,
Some have been commissioned to stay at home and send.

Pastor's Paragraphs

Most of us have known the embarrassment that comes when an important birthday is overlooked. It is mighty hard to atone for such an oversight. I am embarrassed now for my failure to call to your attention the birthday of our church. Last Tuesday, the First Baptist Church was 114 years old. Let's plan a real celebration on the occasion of our 115th birthday next year!

Only God knows how much good has been done through the ministry of this grand old First Baptist Church. However, we must not be satisfied to rest on its past accomplishments. The future is the thing that should challenge our hearts. I honestly believe that we are right on the threshold of doing great things for God.

The following historical sketch appeared in the booklet which was published when the new sanctuary was completed:

"On Sunday, May 2, 1847, the First Baptist Church was organized under the name "Pensacola Baptist Church of Christ." Elders Alexander Travis and Joseph Mitchell were leaders in starting the work.

"Aaron Hendrix was elected to serve as Deacon on Monday evening after the church was organized on Sunday.

"The church was incorporated as "The Pensacola Baptist Church" in 1852 and the East Government Street Building was erected. The first mission offering recorded was received in 1856.

"In 1870 a Sabbath School was begun, the church was reorganized and the name 'First Baptist Church of Pensacola' was adopted.

"Plans for a new building were made in 1891. By September, 1892, a sketch had been prepared of the proposed structure on Palafox Hill. The first service was held in the present building April 20, 1895. Membership seems to have been 135. The last Sunday service was held October 28, 1956, with both Baptism and the Lord's Supper being observed."

Make your plans now to be in the services here on the Lord's Day. Mr. Bizzell will bring the morning message, and Mr. Jim Rogers will bring the evening message. Your pastor will be finishing a revival meeting at the First Baptist Church, Fort Walton Beach.

Faithfully in Christ,

James L. Pleitz

YOU...TH in Particular

By JERRY HOWELL

With the meeting of the church committee on youth activities this past week, you will begin to see a bit more action and a little less talk. This group was elected to help plan, schedule, and execute the many activities in all youth departments. Each has a great concern for effective work with our youth. The group includes: Mr. Charles Overman, Jr., representing General Officers and serving as Chairman; Mrs. Lawren Meacham, Sr. 15, Vice Chairman; Mr. Lee M. Hardy, a deacon and parent; and Mrs. Barbara Methvin, Young People's Training Union.

Here are some of the activities and projects for the committee and carefully selected youth representation to consider:

Intermediate Workshop—June 19-30.

West Florida Assembly—July 3-8.

Youth-led Revival—August 11-13.

More specifically:

Sunday night fellowship

Moonlight cruise

Summer recreation

Library Notes

Last Sunday our pastor mentioned the hard commands of Jesus in his sermon. We have a book by the title, "The Hard Commands of Jesus" by Roy Pearson which I am sure some of you will want to read. What does, "Go, sell what you have" mean to me? How can I love my enemies or be perfect? Some of Jesus' commands are hard because we do not understand their meaning. Others we understand but do not believe. Still others we believe but do not have the courage to obey. Each of the twelve chapters interprets one of these hard commands. Aimed primarily at those of us who know something of the Christian faith but want to know more, the book speaks to us in our daily lives and explains the timeless Gospel in modern times.

A big thanks to all who had anything to do with making the Church Library Week a success.

THE SECRET OF THE TORCH'S BRIGHTNESS LIES IN THE FAITH OF THE LEADERS

A visitor to the White House during the days of the Civil War said: "I had been spending three weeks in the White House with Mr. Lincoln as his guest. One night—it was just after the Battle of Bull Run—I was restless and could not sleep. It was coming near to the dawn of the day, when I heard low tones proceeding from a private room where the President slept. The door was partly open. Instinctively, I looked in, and there I saw a sight which I shall never forget. It was the President kneeling before an open Bible. The light was turned low in the room. His back was toward me. I shall never forget his tones so piteous and sorrowful. 'O Thou God, that heard Solomon in the night when he prayed and cried for wisdom, hear me! I cannot lead these people, I cannot guide the nation, without Thy help. I am poor and weak and sinful. O God, Thou didst hear Solomon when he cried for wisdom—hear me and save this nation.' God heard, and He answered him then and there."

THE Singing CHURCH

Something Different

You will note a great difference in the evening service this Sunday when our Adult and Youth Choirs combine in a mighty voice of praise. Choir members who have not participated in a while will be thrilled with the experience of singing in the mass choir. We hope to see the entire choir loft filled with Christians anxious to voice their testimony in song.

The Youth Choir will keep its regular Sunday schedule. Both choirs will assemble in the choir room for spiritual as well as technical preparation for the service.

Brotherhood

BROTHERHOOD MEETING

MONDAY, MAY 8 Beginning with Supper at 6:15

Brother W. T. Osborn, president of the Brotherhood, announces that the program will be under the direction of Brother W. C. Carr, Jr., and will be on "Local Missions."

Men of the church are urged to attend and will want to make reservations for supper.
