JAMES L. PLEITZ
PASTOR

Season's Greetings

From each member of the church staff to each member of our church goes a sincere prayer for a wonderful Christmas season and a happy, prosperous New Year — with hearts and talents dedicated to the service of Christ who alone gives meaning to Christmas.

Reading from left to right: Mr. Jerry Howell, Minister of Music and Director of Youth Activities; Mr. Clyde K. Bizzell, Assistant to the Pastor; Mrs. James T. Dunnam, Pastor's Secretary; Miss Mary Lou Pitts, Educational Secretary; Rev. James L. Pleitz, Pastor; Mrs. James C. Rountree, Financial Secretary; Mrs. Kitty Manning, Dietician; Mrs. G. T. Sutton, Membership Secretary; and Mr. S. R. Rutherford, Custodian.

Pastor's Paragraphs

KEEPING CHRISTMAS

Would you like to make this Christmas a uniquely Christian experience? Would you like to plant a seed that could grow in your heart even after the good, but transitory, frills of the holiday season fade? Here is a formula that, if genuinely tried, can do just that. These suggestions were written years ago by Henry Van Dyke:

"It is a good thing to observe Christmas day, but there is a better thing than the observance of Christmas day, and that is, keeping Christmas.

"Are you willing to forget what you have done for other people, and to remember what other people have done for you; to put your rights in the background, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground; to see that your fellow men are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy; to own that probably the only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give to life — are you willing to do these things for a day? Then, you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open — are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then, you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world — stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death — and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago is the image and brightness of the Eternal love? Then, you can keep Christmas.

"And if you keep it for a day, why not

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES

On Sunday, December 24, we will have Sunday School and the morning worship service at the regular time. On that Sunday, our evening schedule will be completely different. We will have a Vesper Service in the sanctuary at five o'clock. We will not have Training Union.

Remember this schedule is for Christmas Eve Sunday, December 24. We believe that this different approach will provide a meaningful and worshipful service on Christmas Eve.

We urge all of our people to plan to be present for all of the services of worship on Christmas Eve and to invite friends to attend with you.

THE GOLD RUSH IS ON

In the Training Recognition Service last Wednesday evening, 11 diplomas were given out to members of our church. In a similar service last year, 281 diplomas were presented. Many of our people have asked about requirements for completing the gold seal on the Christian Training Diploma. It is not yet possible to receive the gold seal. Requirements for this seal include taking all 10 of the Survey courses listed in Category 1. There are 3 of these books that have not yet been released.

Those who have already received their Christian Training Diploma may be working toward this gold seal by taking any of the Category I books they have not already taken. We would be happy to check your record for you if you desire.

always? But, you can never keep it alone."

I will be looking for you Sunday, 1200 Bibles strong.

Faithfully in Christ,

James L. Pleitz

MEMORIAL FLOWERS SUNDAY

The memorial flowers for the sanctuary Sunday will be in memory of Charles Ray. They will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Griffin and Carolyn and Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Davis, Jr.

YOUTH CHOIR TO SING ON ANTIETAM

At the gracious invitation of Chaplain Agnew, the Youth Choir will participate in a special Christmas program aboard the USS Antietam on Sunday afternoon, December 24. This program is a Service of Lights when the division officers each light candles in asking the Yuletide blessing upon the mighty aircraft carrier and her crew. We will sing at 3:45 and will leave the church at 2:45.

CHILDREN'S CAROL SERVICE THIS SUNDAY

You will not want to miss the annual service of carols which is presented by the Children's Choirs. How thankful we are for the splendid leadership and hard work done by the directors: Mrs. Julian Minchew, Mrs. Spencer West, and Miss Glenda Roberson.

ANNUAL ASSOCIATIONAL CAROL SING

Our Junior and Primary Choirs will participate in this annual festival of carols. At least a dozen choirs have been committed to sing in this service. The service is at 7:30 P.M. Monday, December 18. Parents will bring their children directly to the Brownsville Baptist Church, Strong and T Streets.

THANK YOU CHOIR AND SOLOISTS

"What sweeter service can you bring?" Your work was a pleasant fulfillment of your director's hopes and came as a result of many hard-working hours on your part. Mrs. Adams' very excellent piano accompaniment was appreciated so very much. "Now we press on . . .!" Thanks to Mr. Sam Jordan for making it possible for us to hear the beautiful voice of his son during this exciting season. Sammy added a vibrant sparkle to the presentation. God bless you all.

GIFTS AND GIVING

"Give what you have. To someone it may be better than you dare to think." Longfellow.

"We should give as we receive: cheerfully, quickly and without hesitation, for there is no grace in a benefit that sticks to the fingers."—Seneca.

"Shall we call ourselves benevolent, when the gifts we bestow do not cost us a single privation?"—Degerando.

George MacDonald wrote: "If instead of a gem or even a flower, we could place the gift of a lovely thought in the heart of a friend, that would be giving as the angels give."

"He that giveth, let him do it with simplicity."—Romans 12:8.
