YOUTH'S DEDICATION

I am YOUTH! I look ahead
Into the days of coming years.
I'm not alone, I'm unafraid
Of all the warnings and fears,
The hopeless tales that I am told
By pessimistic prophets here
Of what the future years will hold
Of what there is for me to fear
I hear them not, for they are wrong.

My world will be a happy one,
I make my own life, weak or strong,
And fearing not, my work is done,
Unafraid and not alone,
I face the world they painted grim,
I pledge my time and all I own,
And all my life I live for Him.
Into the distant time to be
I see that hope is burning strong,
I see my Lord awaiting me—
And seeing, follow with a song.

Oh, Lord, to Thee I dedicate
My life and all that I would be;
Into Thy hands I place my fate,
And having faith, I'll live for Thee.

YOUTH WEEK — MARCH 17 - 24

LEADERSHIP FOR THE FUTURE

Pastor's Paragraphs

I am so thankful that the flu epidemic is about over! Many of our people are "on the mend" as indicated by the attendance Sunday.

In just a short time our revival will begin. Guard these dates, April 15 - 21.

I sincerely pray that we'll put our heart and soul into this all-out revival effort.

Bernard Baruch, in a lengthy discourse on the matter of American integrity, made this significant statement: ". . . we have grown indifferent to the crucial issues confronting us—issues which will govern our future." We take this statement completely out of its context because we feel that these words can be applied to the Christian church which, by and large, is indifferent to crucial issues confronting her today.

"Apathy," says Mr. Baruch, is the "unforgiveable sin." Certainly this word, apathy, is descriptive of the Christian church. Not since the days of the Apostle Paul has the true church of Jesus Christ evangelized the nation of the world in each generation. And because of this apathetic condition, we find that with each succeeding generation the number of non-Christians has increased until today less than 10% of the world's population is even Protestant, let alone truly born again through faith in the atoning work of the Lord Jesus.

We must arise from our lethargy and apathy and be about "our Father's business" if we are to reach our generation with the Gospel. A tremendous responsibility and opportunity faces the members of our church in the seven-day period from April 15 through 21.

I'll be looking for you Sunday, 1250 Bibles strong.

Faithfully in Christ,

James L. Pleitz

FROM THE PASTOR EMERITUS

We have recently received a letter from Dr. G. J. Rousseau, pastor emeritus of our church. Dr. Rousseau expressed his appreciation for the many communications which he has received, too many to be answered personally. Mrs. Rousseau is confined to the bed. You will want to remember to pray for them.

"WHAT AM I DOING?"

"I'm calling all the boys and girls to come to Sunday School at First Baptist Church," says Perrie Kay Renfroe, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Renfroe.

LIBRARY NOTES

Overheard from the Library Shelves:
Adult Section — "Hey, how come I've been stuck up here on this shelf for so long? I know I'm good and would be good for any adult! Of course the adults in this church are smart people, but you're never too smart to learn more. It is tiresome just sitting here waiting. I need a little fresh air outing!"

Young People's Book — "Well, now that they have us all mixed in with you adults, I sure hope your luck won't be mine. I see all those lively, lovely teenagers around here and I'm waiting for one of them to take me off the shelf and cuddle me under his arm and take me right on home with him. That will be fun!"

Children's Corner — "Well, guess you might say there is a little more going on over here, but still I've been on this shelf since they put me here and that is too long. Yes, I heard the librarian say that last month only about 500 of the 4,000 books went out. Let's see—fractions . . . that isn't even half, or one-fourth! Subtraction? That leaves 3,500 of us in here stuck on the shelves. I believe someone is going to get me off here next Sunday." "Get me off" . . . the other 3499 books echoed and re-echoed down the shelves, "me too, "me too," "me too" . . .
