THE COMPANY OF JESUS

The simple fishermen
Cast nets into the sea,
And Jesus watched them, as he walked
Beside Lake Galilee;
He called; they rowed ashore;
With joy they made the choice
To leave their boats for work with him,
Inspired by his voice.

New trails they broke with him
Through fields, up mountainside;
They cared for sick and hungry ones,
In training with their Guide.
Real comrades they became,
Less fearful and more brave,
And as their love of Jesus grew,
More help to men they gave.

They shared his daring dreams:
His hope that every one
Would carry on, with Jesus' help.
The work he had begun.
His circle, once so small,
Now 'round the earth extends,
Enlarged by those who venture forth
To make a world of friends.

Pastor's Paragraphs

GOD ANSWERED OUR PRAYER

Prior to the scheduled time for our revival, many of you had prayed that the Lord would send us a time of spiritual refreshment. Last week our prayer was answered. How my heart thrilled to see your response! All of us were made to rejoice in the meaningful decisions that were made during these days. How we thank God for Brother McClard and Dr. Smith.

You realize, of course, that this is not the time for us to relax in the work of the Lord. There are so many others that we need to reach. I feel like if we will be faithful during the coming days that many others will be coming into our church family.

In a few days we will be making plans for Bible School. Your pastor is very concerned about this important ministry of our church. If you can help us, please contact Mr. Bizzell. There is a place for you to serve in Bible School.

Sunday promises to be a wonderful day here in the church. I'll be looking for you then, 1300 Bibles strong.

Sincerely in Christ,

James L. Pleitz

"READING — THE FIFTH FREEDOM — ENJOY IT"

This is the slogan for National Library Week which we are observing this week.

"In books we have the richest treasures of earth—the supersifted output of the best minds of all ages. But though more books are available today than ever before, the art and joy of book reading are known to few. For each person who may peruse ten or a dozen good books a year, there are a hundred who never open the covers of even one. Experts say that half of the homes in America have fewer than 50 books, and three-fourths of them fewer than a hundred books." This is taken from the Preface of I LOVE BOOKS by Snider. The chapters are entitled: "Why We Should Read," "What We Should Read." This is one of the best books in our Church Library.

THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF BOOKS by Stefferud tells how to win greater success and happiness with the help of books.

A PARENTS GUIDE TO CHILDREN'S READING by Larrick is a warm, friendly helper that will be welcomed by parents of children from one to twelve years of age.

THE TRUTH ABOUT YOUR CHILD'S READING by Sam Duker. Professor Duker shows how in the opinion of the great majority of educators, the present National Reading Program is definitely best for your child now in the long run.

THE Singing CHURCH

"A THOUSAND SACRED SWEETS"

The pure delights shared by our choir this past week under Mr. McClard's leadership will doubtless be alive in our hearts for a long, long time. His wonderful spirit and contagious zeal caused everyone of us to work hard and sing well.

None of the efforts of our revival will ever be appreciated more than the faithful, hard working, revival choir. This kind of cooperation gets things done! Mrs. Adams and Carol Rogers made a contribution which often goes without notice and praise. The choir joins countless others of the "First family" in saying, thank you, to these ladies who played for the services.
