PASTOR

Learning Christ

Teach me, my Lord to be sweet and gentle

in all the events of life.

in disappointments,

in the thoughtlessness of others, in the insincerity of those I trusted,

in the unfaithfulness of those on whom I relied.

Let me put myself aside to think of the happiness of others,

to hide my little pains and heartaches.

so that I may be the only one to suffer from them.

Teach me to profit by the suffering that comes across my path.

Let me so use it that it may mellow me, not harden nor embitter me.

that it may make me patient,
not irritable,

that it make me broad in my forgiveness, not narrow, haughty and overbearing.

May no one be less good for having come within my influence. No one less pure, less true, less kind, less noble for having been a fellow traveler in our journey toward ETERNAL LIFE.

As I go my rounds from one distraction to another, let me whisper from time to time, a word of love for Thee. May my life be lived in the supernatural, full of power for good, and strong in its purpose of sanctity.

—Selected

"Put on therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, longsuffering, forbearing one another, and forgiving each other . . . even as the Lord forgave you." Col. 3:12-13

Pastor's Paragraphs

IT'S WONDERFUL TO BE HOME

Your welcome last Sunday certainly warmed my heart. The congregations for both the morning and evening services were most gratifying. As I have said before, there just isn't another church family like you!

In a few weeks I hope to have the slides back so that I can share with you some of the blessings received during the recent study tour. It was certainly one of the highlights of my life. Dr. Newport did a splendid job in leading our group. His lectures were especially helpful. I hope in the not too distant future that we can have him in Pensacola.

Since school will be starting in the very near future, I am looking forward to an increased attendance in both the Sunday School and the Training Union. The attendance this summer has been fine. In fact, I think we have had our best summer in spite of (or perhaps because of) the pastor's absence! Do make a special effort to be here Sunday. I'll be looking forward to seeing you, 1200 Bibles strong.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

Time — Where Do You Spend It?

Recently the Manchester, N. H., Union Leader carried the following paragraph, which appeared first in the Evangelist Magazine: "The average man or woman in the United States who has reached 70 years of age has spent his time from birth to that date:

3 years in education, 8 years in amusement, 6 years in eating, 11 years in working, 24 years in sleeping, 5½ years in washing and dressing, 6 years in walking, 3 years in conversation, 3 years reading, 6 months in church."

The editor of the Union Leader adds:
"The final item on the list indicates why this is not a better world than it is."

"Living Abundantly" by Frank Burkhalter has a wonderful chapter on "The most precious thing in the world—Time."
It is worth your time to read it.

LTS

DON'T BE . . . A QUITTER

I have taught a class for many years;
Borne many burdens—toiled through tears;
But folks don't notice me a bit.
I'm so discouraged—I'll just quit.

Sometime ago I joined the choir
That many souls I might inspire;
But folks don't seem moved a bit.
So what's the use to sing, I'll quit.

I've labored long in women's work
And not a task did ever shirk,
But folks have talked a little bit.
And I won't stand it. I'll just quit.

I've led the young people day and night
And sacrificed to lead them right,
But folks won't help me out a bit
And I'm so tired, I think I'll quit.

Christ's cause is hindered everywhere
And folks are dying in despair . . .
The reason why, Just list a bit;
The Church is full of folks who quit.

BEHIND

NOT WITH MY

Bank,
 Service Club,
 Country Club,
 Insurance,
 Gas Bill,
 Tobacco,
 Cosmetics,
 Games,
 House Rent—

BEHIND ONLY with my church, partly because my church doesn't expose my delinquency, or cut me off, or make it embarrassing for me; partly because the things of the world, although of lesser value, have crept into my major interests and laid hold of my will power; partly because it is easier to spend money where my interest lies than to place it behind the ideals I do not carefully and unfailingly support; partly because I know that Dick, or Tom, or Harry will keep the church going, and my delinquency will not be the means of destroying the church. It will still be there, thanks to others, when I want or need it. Someone will be good enough to "bat for me" while I am dissipating my interest and energies and funds elsewhere.

AND YET—when I stop to think of all of this, I know it isn't right that I place my church LAST: my conscience, when unable to smother or dodge the real issue, disturbs me; I should be a bigger, better, more useful citizen and Christian if actually I paid my church, even though I had to leave some lesser things off, at least for a time. BEHIND . . . BEHIND with my Christ. I'll be a better man and manager and member than placing myself in the ranks of the "Always Behind with my Church."

Associational Brotherhood Meeting Monday, August 26, 6:45 P.M. Bellview Baptist Church

The speaker will be Brother Joseph DuBoise, pastor of the East Hill Baptist Church. Men, if you have not already gotten your ticket, call or see Ben Aultman or Gerald Garrett.
