Thanksgiving of the Heart

Though I keep Thanksgiving in November,
But forget that every day brings cause for giving thanks
I am at heart ungrateful.

And though I praise Thanksgiving as a noble custom,
And urge it upon others, as a duty;
But show by careless living no concern for God, country,
Or others, I am not really thankful;

And though I provide a great family feast;
And toss a bit to charity; While my heart cries;
"I deserve all this!"—I am still ungrateful.

Thanksgiving in the Heart sees all creation—
Wheat or water, home or friendship, faith or country—
As God's unbounded mercy;

Thanksgiving in the Heart enlarges the gift until it fills
The need,
And unveils as best of all the loving motive of the giver;

Thanksgiving in the Heart returns to the gift often
To awaken gratitude; Is spurred by it to become a giver;
Grows skilled in secret giving where there can be no return
Makes of every gift, bread or gold, an hour's labor
Or a silent tear,—An offering of the spirit;
A grateful remembering of what has been given.

Thanksgiving in the Heart never fails the thankful
But single holidays fail, they come so seldom;
Mere repeating of tradition bores
When the originating fire is lost;
Family celebrations die out as families vanish.

But if Thanksgiving never ends, life is always renewed;
For what fortune denies, gratitude discovers in a substitute;
What chance takes away, thankfulness returns in joyful recollection;
What grief tries to steal, the grateful heart joyously gives away.
What death seems to conquer, Thanksgiving beholds as set free with everlasting life;

So Thanksgiving will abide—
The Thanksgiving which is national custom;
The Thanksgiving which is family celebration;
And the Thanksgiving of the Heart.

But the greatest of these is the Thanksgiving of the Heart.

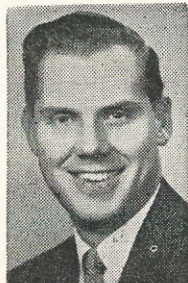

—Paraphrase of I Corinthians 13—by J. R. Swaim

RULERS — LIVING AND DEAD

As I write these words our nation is mourning the death of President John F. Kennedy. Although we did not always agree with his decisions, all of us respected Mr. Kennedy as the elected leader of our nation. History alone must vindicate his actions.

We are shocked and grieved at his untimely death. The whole sordid episode should shake us into a realization that something is dreadfully wrong in America. The Psalmist asked the question worthy of our serious consideration: "If the foundations be destroyed, what are the righteous doing?" WHAT ARE THE RIGHTEOUS DOING?

In just a few minutes the body of our 35th president will be laid to rest in Arlington National Cemetery. His body will remain in the tomb until the hour of resurrection.

Long ago another young man died an untimely death. He was assassinated by the religious leaders of his day. His body was placed in a borrowed grave. Few people mourned his death. No world leaders came to stand before his tomb in final tribute.

They placed his body in a BORROWED tomb. Our Lord only borrowed the tomb of Nicodemus. He knew full well that He would not need a tomb permanently. This was a temporary need. Prior to his crucifixion, our Lord announced to the disciples his death (Matthew 12:40): "For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth."

I'll be looking for you Sunday in His House.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

Library Notes

"Seven Reasons Why a Scientist Believes In God" by A. Cressy Morrison is an arresting appraisal of scientific discovery and advancement which distinguishes these pages of Christian testimony. It is indeed a vibrant Christian faith adequate for any day which the widely-respected scientist shares in these fascinating and convincing studies of divine revelation singular to astronomy, geology, biology, anthropology and other divisions of natural science.

"The Bible Story Book" by Bethann Van Ness is designed primarily as a family story book. Ages 8-12 can read and understand it themselves. Younger children will enjoy having it read to them. Workers with children in all the church organizations will find it invaluable. It is more than just a retelling of the familiar Bible narratives. It is a paraphrase of the entire Bible — more than 300 stories simply and beautifully written. — L. T. S.
