Pastor's Paragraphs

DEDICATION-PARENTAL AND PASTORAL

If you were not in church last Sunday, you missed a real blessing. The good Lord blessed in all the services. It was a thrill to see our attendance surge up over the 1300 mark again in Sunday School.

This coming Lord's Day we will have a Parental Dedication Service at 11 o'clock. The great need of our day is for dedicated parent is so much more than a biological accomplishment.

It involves dedication to life's higher values. Our children are not failing us nearly as much as we are failing them. Some of us are exceedingly poor appraisers. We have made things of secondary importance primary in life. My heart bleeds for the young people in our church who have parents and yet they are in a real sense orphans. Do we really love our children?

It hardly seems possible. This Sunday we will begin our sixth year together as pastor and people.

Standing on the threshold of a new year I want to dedicate my life anew to the service of God. Grace Crowell expressed my feelings exactly when she said:

You are my people, given me to love,
To serve, to shepherd through the days
ahead;
I pray God that I may be worthy of
This honor; I am glad that I was led
To come to you, that through God's gentle grace
My lines have fallen in this pleasant place.
I would be strong to work where there is need;
I would be true to serve you as I should;
And I would give the Bread of Life to feed
Each hungry soul who comes to me for food;
And I would honor with my every word
The blessed Saviour—Jesus Christ, our Lord
I plead with you for patience Should I make
An error, I would gladly make amends,
Or if some unintentional mistake
Be mine, I crave your understanding, friends.
As pastor and as people, may we be Builders together, for Eternity!

Bring your children and come to God's House Sunday. I'll look forward to seeing you then.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pletty

"A STORY TO TELL TO THE NATIONS"

In the words of Miss Fanny S. Heck: "Teach that child to think God's thoughts, ere the clash of nations dull his ears to the calling of the Father's voice." As the girls of Girl's Auxiliary learn Bible verses, study missionary education, read mission books and practice missions in their everyday life, they are becoming world citizens. By coming to know girls of their own ages around the world, members of Girl's Auxiliary become personally interested in the advance of missions. This personal relationship causes a girl to pray more earnestly, and to think more seriously about how God wants her to use her life.

Future destinies are wrapped up in the youth of each generation. They must build with the tools and materials we provide. The responsibility of influencing future missionaries, ministers, doctors, nurses and educators rests on the adults of today. A special tribute must go to the dedicated, faithful leaders and counselors of our Girl's Auxiliary. Through their leadership our girls become happy and resourceful Christians dedicated to the cause of promoting the Kingdom of God to a sin-cursed world.

May 10-16 is Girl's Auxiliary Focus Week — a good time to take a look at Girls' Auxiliary, to encourage their activities and to offer assistance as needed.

We invite you to the Girl's Auxiliary Coronation Wednesday, May 13, 7:30 p.m. to witness a small portion of many hours of study and preparation done by both girls and leaders.

SERVICE OF PARENTAL DEDICATION

At the 11:00 a.m. service next Sunday we will have a brief service of Parental Dedication. This is a time when parents of little children may come in an act of dedication of themselves to bringing up their child in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Parents desiring to participate in this service will meet in the dining room area immediately following Sunday School. Then following the prayer of dedication, which will be early in the service, they will take their children back to the nursery and return themselves to the service. In order that we may have some idea about the number who plan to be present we would appreciate your calling the church office to let us know if you intend to bring your child to this service.

But after they had lived through a real Florida hurricane, solved the mystery of the old beachcomber and had "sand in their shoes", they knew they wanted to stay on in Florida.
