JAMES L. PLEITZ
PASTOR

TO WIN THE WORLD

Would you win all the world for Christ?

One way there is and only one;

You must live Christ from day to day,

And see His will be done.

But who lives Christ must tread His way,

Leave self and all the world behind,

Press ever up and on, and serve

His kind with single mind.

No easy way,—rough—strewn with stones,

And wearisome, the path He trod.

But His way is the only way

That leads man back to God.

And lonesome oft, and often dark

With shame, and outcastry, and scorn,

And, at the end, perchance a cross,

And many a crown of thorn.

But His lone cross and crown of thorn

Endure when crowns and empires fall.

The might of His undying love

In dying conquered all.

Only by treading in His steps

The all-compelling ways of Love,

Shall earth be won, and man made one

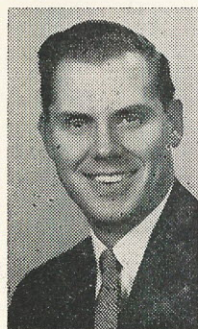

With that Great Love above.

—John Oxenham

Pastor's Paragraphs

ANONYMOUS CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

Dr. Lewis E. Rhodes, pastor of the Broadway Church in Knoxville, Tennessee, has recently written an article entitled, "Anonymous Church Members."

In this article, Dr. Rhodes says, among other things, "There are almost ten million of us Southern Baptists. We cover the nation, not Dixie only. Many of our church members are anonymous. Their names may be written on Church Rolls. Their needs are many but their faces are scarce. If you ask what useful purpose anonymous members serve, we can say that they make the Associational Letter look better. Having the third largest or the second largest or largest membership in the Association, State or the entire Convention carries very little prestige when we know that we hold this rank because we carry a great number of 'Anonymous Members' on our Church Rolls. The nameless church member shows up now and then at the Funeral Home. The Obituary column gives him a name and confers honorable church membership upon him. Again, 'Anonymous' shows up for a wedding. The church is ready to treat him as a Pillar of Faith, commending him for honoring the church by using it. 'Anonymous' never visits the sick; he does not comfort the bereaved; witnessing to the lost is not for him. He does not feed the poor. Christian Missions are not supported by him. He does not occupy the pew! A war was never won with anonymous soldiers. Nameless carpenters do not build houses. Fields are not cultivated with people without name. Anonymous teachers do not educate children. The Church's strength is not anonymous, well-wishing members. Silent, addressless, sightless, invisible Christians (if there can be such) do not support the work. God's people must answer reveille by name and person."

I am looking forward to seeing you IN PERSON in the Lord's House Sunday.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

SEE YOU IN SUNDAY SCHOOL AND WORSHIP SUNDAY

GIRLS' AUXILIARY CORONATION

Above is pictured the Girl's Auxiliary Coronation Service held in our church last Wednesday evening. A list of the girls who were recognized in this special service was contained in last week's Builder. Again we would say congratulations to each of these girls.

HONORING OUR GRADUATES

The Youth Activities Committee, Mrs. Lon Roberts, Jr., Chairman, announces that the First Baptist Church 1964 high school graduates will be honored at a breakfast held at the Skillet Restaurant Sunday, May 31, 8 A.M.

Dr. Henry Ashmore will address the group of more than 50 graduates plus officers, teachers, and workers in our church's ministry to these students. The Pastor will present a special gift from the church to graduates.

Reservations will be made by calling the church office before Thursday, May 28. No charge is made for the meal for the students.

ASSOCIATIONAL BROTHERHOOD MEETING

The quarterly meeting of the Pensacola Bay Baptist Associational Brotherhood will be held here in our church Monday, May 25. The speaker for this program will be Dr. W. A. Ritchie, an optometrist from Mobile, Alabama.

It is our hope that you have already secured your ticket and made your plans to be present. If you have not secured a ticket and can attend, be sure to buy your ticket Sunday from Mr. Bizzell, Mr. Overman, or Mr. Gerald Garrett.

LIBRARY NOTES

The following books are recommended as helpful for young people who are choosing their careers:

CHOOSING YOUR LIFE WORK — Rosengarten

This book presents, in plain and non-technical language, a simple effective plan whereby the individual may analyze his own capacities, aptitudes, and interests, compare them with the requirements of representative occupations, and plan his career accordingly.

CAREERS FOR YOU — Ferrari

Whatever your talents, interests or training — here is sound and specific vocational guidance in the light of the Christian faith.

YOUR PLANS FOR THE FUTURE. — Detjen

This author discusses in an interesting, easy-to-read manner many vital questions that every teenager must face today.

CHRIST IN MY CAREER — Graves

GOD CALLS ME — Pearce

YOU HAVE A TALENT . . . DON'T BURY IT — Bailey

PLANNING A LIFE — Watters

Also others.
