FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
PALAFOX AND LA RUA STREETS
PENSACOLA, FLORIDA

JAMES L. PLEITZ
PASTOR

MY IDEAL DEACON

My ideal deacon would be in regular attendance at all services of the church, morning and evening worship, Sunday School, Training Union, and Prayer Service. By his presence at each of these services, he adds much; by his absence he may not oppose the particular service he causes much harm.

My ideal deacon would be a tither. The ideal deacon sets the pattern for his brethren in faithful stewardship of his possessions through the proper use of his portion and the giving to God of his share.

My ideal deacon would not be nearsighted. He would see beyond the needs and the wants of his congregation, out to the last person on this earth without Christ.

My ideal deacon would be a soulwinner. His heart would beat with a passion to see men saved. He would follow the footsteps of Phillip in presenting the claims of Christ to whomsoever God might bring across his pathway.

My ideal deacon would be a personal friend. He would be the one to whom I could go and talk things over. He would be a counsellor, a confidant, a comforter, a companion, a friend. There are not many ideal deacons as there are not many ideal pastors, but, bless their hearts; there are many who are doing their best "to use the office of deacon well" and are "purchasing to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus."

ELECTION OF DEACONS — SUNDAY 11:00 A.M.

Pastor's Paragraphs

ON SIGNING LOYALTY OATHS

Millions of Americans watched the Democratic National Convention via television from Atlantic City.

Some delegates to the convention could not conscientiously sign the required loyalty oath. Because of their refusal they were denied representation. Their refusal is still fresh in our minds.

It would have been easy for them to sign and still not support the national ticket. Perhaps some did — some did not. At least they were honest. I admire them for their honesty.

Prior to serving as a deacon in our church, a man has to sign a loyalty oath. Among other things, HE PROMISES to actively and prayerfully support the church in its educational and spiritual ministries.

To support the church in its financial program by practicing New Testament tithing.

To support his church regardless of whether he is selected to serve as a deacon or not.

We have many men in this great church who can honestly sign this pledge. Sunday you will be called on to select eleven of them to serve as deacons. With so many good men to choose from, the task of selection is not an easy one. Pray with me that God will guide us in this important selection.

Prayerfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

P.S. Could you sign this loyalty oath? EVERY BORN AGAIN CHRISTIAN is just as obligated to be faithful to tithe and to support his church as those who serve as deacons.

Ten tests of a Growing Christian

"Am I a growing Christian?" It is not enough to say "I hope I am" or "I wish I were". The way to a satisfactory answer is through an accurate and honest survey. Apply the following simple tests and study the results:

1. Am I maintaining reasonably good health?
2. Am I becoming more efficient in my work?
3. Am I keeping up the study of some worth-while subject?
4. Am I reading regularly good books and magazines?
5. Am I making new acquaintances and friends?
6. Am I engaged in some specific Christian service?
7. Am I devoting time each day to prayer and Bible reading?
8. Am I a faithful attendant on the services of my church?
9. Am I a conscientious steward of my time, talents and money?
10. Am I definitely seeking to win others to Christ?

If you are wholly dissatisfied with yourself at one of these points, mark it zero. If you are fully satisfied at any point, mark it ten. If you are neither entirely satisfied nor dissatisfied, rate yourself at an appropriate point between zero and ten. What estimate does this give you of yourself? Are you a 50% growing Christian? Less than 50%? At what points are you failing most noticeably? If you truly want to grow, you can concentrate upon these points at which growth is least satisfactory and begin definitely to plan to provide the elements of nurture necessary for the growth desired."

Taken from the study course book "Deepening the Spiritual Life" by Gaines S. Dobbins.

STATE MISSIONS OFFERING GOAL: $800.00

State Missions Offering is a "special" offering taken each September. The many activities of our State Missions are not included or provided for through the Co-operative Program.

Our State Missions Offering will be used in support of United Christian Action, the Children's Home in Jacksonville, to help build camp facilities on the new camp-site near Lake Yale, to provide assistance for the Committee of Protestants and other Americans united for separation of church and state, to bring a spiritual ministry to those in penal institutions. These are a few of the many activities our missions offering will be invested in.

State Missions Offering provides an opportunity for us to see our giving at work. September is State Missions month—special envelopes will be found in the pew racks—give that the needs may be met.
