Pastor's Paragraphs

KEEPING OF CHRISTMAS

Each day the song reminds us, "It is one day closer to Christmas." Now is the time to complete your shopping, and please don't forget Lottie Moon!

The important thing about Christmas is not the buying of gifts but the KEEPING OF CHRISTMAS. Years ago, Henry Van Dyke made some splendid suggestions concerning keeping Christmas. Let me share them with you:

"It is a good thing to observe Christmas day, but there is a better thing than the observance of Christmas Day, and that is keeping Christmas.

"Are you willing to forget what you have done for other people, and to remember what other people have done for you; to put your rights in the background, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground; to see that your fellow men are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy; to own that probably the only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give to life—are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then, you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open—are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death—and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago is the image and brightness of the Eternal love? Then, you can keep Christmas.

"And if you keep it for a day, why not always? But, you can never keep it alone."

Most sincerely,

James L. Pleitz

GIVING

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever Believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16.

Giving is an act of worship, a deeply sacred thing. We worship God with our offerings, and the extent of our giving in proportion to our means is the measure of the genuineness of our worship. Giving is a spiritual experience.

As a steward, the Christian is answerable to God for the way he makes his money, the tithes and offerings he brings into the church, and for the way he spends all his money. If he does not hear the call to go in person to carry the gospel, he is obliged to go in prayer and in purse.

Let each of us be much in prayer for our missionary efforts. Let each of us go with our purses worthily, so that our church's goal, $8,500, of the Southern Baptist Convention's goal, $12,500,000 is over-reached!

LIBRARY NOTES

Ann Harrison has written of the life and work of her husband, Paul Harrison, in the book A TOOL IN HIS HAND. He was one of a small group of young people who went to the Persian Gulf area of the Arabian peninsula. They went to serve and proclaim the gospel of Jesus but found their way blocked by a wall of prejudice and misunderstanding. Paul Harrison spent 40 years there pioneering by caravan and sailboat, offering the ministry of medicine even to those who called them “dogs, sons of dogs.” This is a story of one who thoroughly enjoyed being completely dedicated. It is also the story of Ann Harrison whose marriage to Paul Harrison brought her new opportunities for mission service.

Comforting, heartwarming, sustaining, inspiring—these are some of the words that come in reference to the book by Dr. W. H. Evans entitled HOW TO VALUE LIFE. It contains much of the author's full life, one enriched by service to his fellowmen through teaching, guiding, and preaching. L. T. S.

THOUGHTS ON CHRISTMAS

“The birth of Jesus is the sunrise of the Bible,” says Dr. Henry van Dyke. “Towards this point the aspirations of the prophets and the poems of the psalmists were directed, as the heads of flowers are turned towards the dawn. From this point a new day began to flow very silently over the world—a day of faith and freedom, a day of hope and love. When we remember the high meaning that has come into human life, and the clear light that has flooded softly down from the manger-cradle in Bethlehem of Judea, we do not wonder that mankind has learned to reckon history from the birthday of Jesus, and to date all events by the years before or after the Nativity of Christ.”
