CHURCHES

Beautiful is the large church,
With stately arch and steeple;
Neighborly is the small church,
With groups of friendly people;
Reverent is the old church,
With centuries of grace;
And a wooden church or a stone church
Can hold an altar place.
And whether it be a rich church
Or a poor church anywhere,
Truly it is a great church
If God is worshipped there.

Pastor's Paragraphs

THE LEAST OF THESE

I had never been there before. The good Lord willing it shall not be my last visit. Every Christian should make a visit to Youth Harbor occasionally.

Youth Harbor is our detention home in Escambia County for wayward children. The present facilities were opened in 1944. There have been very few changes since then. The number of Juvenile cases in the county has more than doubled. As the population continues to increase we can expect this number to continue to grow.

I was appalled at what I saw at Youth Harbor. The facilities are completely inadequate. They are terribly understaffed. Something desperately needs to be done.

The County Commissioners were more than gracious in the hearing conducted Monday morning. These men realize the need to do something about this situation. We need more than a detention home for our wayward youth. We need a total program consisting of prevention, detention, and rehabilitation.

As a Christian and a citizen of Escambia County, each one of us should be concerned about this matter. Jesus was. "Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: . . . I was in prison, and ye came unto me. . . . Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." (Matthew 25:34-36b, 40b)

I sincerely hope that you will make a real effort to be in church with your family Sunday. Regardless of the weather, meet me in the Meeting House!

Faithfully your pastor

"TO PAINT A TIGER SUCCESSFULLY . . .

The Artist Must Have Within
Himself The Potentality
To Be One."

I ran across this Chinese saying last week while reading a book on the history of art. It stuck with me because of the unusual way in which such a universal idea was expressed. Art for art's sake has no appeal to the average person because it has no life—no vitality. To be meaningful, it must spring from experience. The great personalities of history are those whose creativeness was born of their dreams, desires, and ambitions—all a result of their experience.

This idea can be related to the congregational music program of our church. To sing hymns expressing great Christian truths, the individual must have within himself firm convictions, built on Christian experience. The expressions of the hymns must be a vital, living part of the individual.

Beethoven said, "Music should strike fire from the heart of man." It is to this end that we sing. Our hymn singing should set our hearts and souls aflame with love and zealous devotion for the One who has so enriched our experience. The soul that thrills to the strains of "Amazing Grace" is the soul that has, through the unfathomable grace of God, tasted the sweetness of the transforming power of Christ. "On Christ, The Solid Rock, I Stand," is the triumphant testimony of a regenerated soul! What Christian, assured of an eternity with Christ, can hesitate to sing these words?

The spiritual depth of any church can be felt in the congregational singing—not through the volume, tempo, or harmonic solidity but through the vitality and spirit emanating from a people to whom Christian experience is nothing or everything. Sing with spirit and enthusiasm! Claim this privilege of sing from experience!

SERMON TOPICS

11: A. M.

"An Unfinished Sermon"
(Acts 24)

7:15 P. M.

"Playing the Fool"
(I Samuel 26:21)

LOST UMBRELLAS

Usually it is the property belonging to other people that they have left at the church that is our concern. Several months ago, we purchased some umbrellas for use in emergency situations by our ushers. Most of them have disappeared from the Ushers' Room. Will you check and see if you have at home a black umbrella that belongs to the First Baptist Church. They have the church name inside of the umbrella which can be seen when it is opened.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know . . . that a committee composed of Mr. Bizzell; Mr. Winford Abney, World Missions Leader of our Brotherhood; Mrs. Robert F. Jernigan, WMU President; Mrs. Spencer West, President of the Day Society; Mrs. M. B. Dawson, Director of Prayer; Mrs. Louis Berlin, President of the Night Society; along with others are making detailed plans for Home Missions Night . . . that Dr. Hugo Culpepper is to be the principal speaker. Be listening for further details of this very exciting evening.

A SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY

Your Builder last week carried the announcement about the coming on March 9 of Dr. Hugo Culpepper. Dr. Culpepper has just been elected as Director of Missions of the Home Mission Board. In this position, he succeeds Dr. Arthur B. Rutledge, who was promoted to replace Dr. Courts Redford, as the Executive Secretary. Dr. Culpepper had served as a missionary of the Foreign Mission Board from 1940 to 1959. Just prior to going to the Home Mission Board he was serving as the Associate Professor of Missions at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in a position he had held since 1959.

SPIRITUAL TRANQUILITY

Clear conscience makes the outlook bright
For any kind of weather,
And serves to calm our thoughts at night
Like sheep that rest together;
For earth can offer no release
Like a God-given inner peace.

EDUCATION

"It does not speak well for our values when we spend more on the ABC's—alcohol, bets, and cigarettes—than on the three R's of education."

READ AND LIVE

"The Golden Rule is old, but it's as good as ever. It hasn't been used often enough to result in any appreciable wear. Read Luke 6:31."

THE CHRISTIAN IN BUSINESS by John E. Mitchell, Jr. answers such questions as: Can religion and business mix? How is faith in God really related to one's daily occupation? The author ranges his discussion through such topics as the ethics of buying and selling, the secret of good personnel relations, enthusiasm for one's work and, the value of a competitive spirit. This book summons employer and employee alike to acknowledge high Christian calling in the activities of business . . . to discover in work new meaning, purpose, poise, and satisfaction.

THE CHRISTIAN LAYMAN by F. M. Segler will help all church members recover a sense of wholeness concerning the church's total membership. He says laymen are as vital a part of a church as the minister. "The pastor can do precious little unless the laymen are behind him in his efforts to fulfill Christ's commission." The witness of a layman often carries more weight than that of his pastor. As a Christian a layman is called to practice his faith in every area of life—in the shop, office or plant, and at the dinner table with his family.
