"For We Are Laborers Together With God . . ."

For we are laborers
Workers
Toilers
Tillers in the field
And the vineyards
Of the world.

SHOW YOUR FAITH
BY YOUR WORKS

Laborers together
Not alone do we toil
But rather we share
The load of the work
With other pairs
Of hands and feet—
With other minds and hearts.

Together with God
How good to share
The burden with another.
But, O, the blessedness
To know the brother
Laborer is none other Than our God—
The great and mighty God!

—NINA GWIN.

Pastor's Paragraphs

A MATTER OF COMMUNICATION

Honestly I thought that you had gotten the message. Our attendance was up considerably the Sunday night after I signed the Pastor's Paragraph "C U 2 X Sunday."

In recent days a number of interesting comments have been made about this particular phrase. One fellow even went so far as to suggest that I join the Black Muslim Organization!

For those who have not already solved the puzzle, I was simply trying to say, "See you two times Sunday." I'll be looking forward to doing just this on the Lord's Day.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L Pleitz

P.S. We should begin now preparing our hearts for the revival. There are many, many people in our community that need to be reached for Christ. Remember the dates, April 18-25.

INTERMEDIATE SWORD DRILL AND SPEAKER'S TOURNAMENT

The Associational Elimination for the Intermediate Sword Drill and Young People Speaker's Tournament will be held on Monday, April 12. We are planning to have our Speaker's Tournament here at the church on Wednesday, April 7. Please let Mr. Bizzell know if you are planning to participate in this event.

No man is ever so tall or straight as when he bends over to lift little children.

Often the first steps toward happiness are the church steps.

DID YOU NOTICE?

You, as well as the Minister of Music, were well aware of the noticeable vacancies in the Adult Choir during the last three weeks. Our faithful members, may their tribe increase, can be counted on to be in their places for each service and rehearsal regardless of wind and weather. However, they have a formidable foe in the very contagious sore throat virus or the numberless other ills which send them to bed. And, as an indication of their loyalty to the cause of ministering through music, the illness of themselves or family will be about the only thing to cause them to be away from their position of responsibility.

You did notice? Can you help bridge the gap when such occurs and when the work of the choir is so vital to our services? Does it embarrass you for the choir to be small and weak on some occasions?

We need additional membership to give strength in depth. There have been occasions when a whole section was laid low by sieges of sickness or by other providential circumstances.

We need associate members who are unable for valid reasons to attend all rehearsals and services yet who can be called upon to step in and prepare for particular services when emergencies occur or when there are very many scheduling intended absences. THIS MAKES SENSE! You can help us. There must be a hundred capable voices who could and should respond to this need. Please come and see your Minister of Music.

WELCOME, MISS HELEN MAY

We are happy to welcome Miss Helen May to our Staff. She will serve as Director of Youth Education with responsibilities for the total program with Junior through college age youth.

Miss May is a native of Rome, Georgia; a graduate of Georgia State College for Women; and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. She taught school for a number of years following college and then served the First Baptist Church, Rome, Georgia, before going to Seminary. She has served on the Staff of the Woodlawn Baptist Church, Birmingham; the Queensborough Baptist Church, Shreveport; and came to us from the South Main Baptist Church, Houston, Texas. We are happy to welcome this dedicated and qualified person.

The Youth Activities Committee is planning a reception in her honor at the close of the evening service Sunday. Every member of the church family is urged to be present.

STUDY COURSE TEACHERS' CLINIC

The Associational Training Union is having a one-night clinic for Study Course teachers on Monday, March 29. This meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Olive Baptist Church.

The opening session will feature a film entitled "Tips for Teachers". The department conferences will take the form of How to teach a study course for the age group involved.

Any of our folks who want to learn how to teach study courses are invited to participate in this clinic.

LIBRARY NOTES

TELL ME HOW by Theodore F. Adams is a book written at the insistence of members of his church who said, "You preachers are forever telling us what to do, but you seldom tell us how to do the things you preach about. Please tell us how." The titles of some of the chapters are: How to practice what you preach; How to live in peace; How to live in the Space Age. A quotation from the chapter How to live in peace, is "True peace comes when we feel assured that we are where God wants us to be and are doing what He has called us to do."
