SUNDAY 11:00 A. M.

YOUTH NOTES

NO YOUTH OF SENIOR HIGH-COLLEGE AGE can afford to miss the YOUTH DEPTH STUDY JULY 19, 20, 26, 27, 7-8:30 P.M. We will meet in the homes of some of our young people for a discussion, "Tomorrow You Marry", led by our pastor.

T. A. B. S. is for YOU if you are in Intermediate 13-14 or Senior 15-16 departments. Many special features have been planned for you.

TEN THINGS I WISH I HAD KNOWN BEFORE I WAS TWENTY-ONE

I wish I had known:

1. That it was really important to be a Christian.
2. What I was going to do for a living—exactly what my lifework would be.
3. That my health after 30 depended to a large degree on what I put into my stomach before I was 21.
4. How to take care of money—that I was really a trustee of what I had.
5. The asset of being neatly and sensibly dressed.
6. That habits are mighty hard to change after you're 21.
7. That worthwhile things require time, patience, and work.
8. That the world would give me just about what I deserve.
9. That a thorough education not only pays better wages than hard labor, but it brings the best of everything else.
10. The value of absolute truthfulness in everything.

And one more extra thought—that my parents weren't old fogies after all!!

Director of Youth Education

PROCEDURE FOR NOMINATING DEACONS

The Committee for the Nomination of Deacons requests that every member of the church suggest men who should be considered by the committee for nomination as deacons. You may suggest as many as you think qualify.

Bo Mitchell, Chairman
B. T. Dean, Vice-Chairman
A. H. Arnold
O. F. (Ben) Aultman
T. A. Shell

LIBRARY NOTES

How about doing some "armchair traveling" these next few months. The following books will take you to some fascinating places and even around the world.

AROUND THE WORLD ON $80 by Robert Christopher should appeal to many young people. He actually had 25 cents left when he reached home. This is a thrilling, true adventure story.

AROUND THE WORLD ON A FREIGHTER AT 76 by Lillian Loveland is one for retirees and others. You will enjoy traveling with her and visiting off the-beaten-track places no one else has written about before.

If you would rather take a leisurely tour visiting 70 different countries then get I CANNOT REST FROM TRAVEL by Williard Price. This is a rich, heart-warming and laughter-loving book.

In ACROSS THE ROOF OF THE WORLD by Wilfred Skrede you can go with him from Norway to Canada by way of Sinkiang and over the Himalayas.

In Martha Martin's story, O RUGGED LAND OF GOLD, you can stay with her in Alaska for a whole winter. Her husband was missing—or dead. Her right arm was broken. One leg was useless. And she was awaiting the birth of her child! Using her memories and the diary she wrote to keep from going mad, this is the story of her winter alone in the wilderness. An almost unbelievable true story.

WANTED — OPTIMIST

How many of the following can you identify?

Ophthalmologist
Optometrist
Oppugner
Optician
Optimist
Oppidan

Score five points for each correct answer. If you score 25 or above, pat yourself on the back. Check Brother Webster's publication for the correct answers. I believe you will find them most interesting.

It is GOOD to have ophthalmologists, optometrists, opticians, and oppidans in the church. (I am most grateful that there is a marked shortage of oppugners.) Optimists, however, are simply INDISPENSABLE to the life of the New Testament congregation.

A genuine optimist is hard to find. I read about one last week. Charles Kimes who flies for Pan American Airways is an optimist. He was piloting a 707 jet out of San Francisco when the outside engine on the starboard wing burst into flame. When a 28-inch section of the wing fell in flames, he calmly announced to the passengers, "We have had some MINOR trouble!"

The captain's speech was most convincing. All but 9 of the 153 passengers on Pan American Flight 843 boarded another plane and continued their flight to Honolulu.

The captain was an optimist because he believed in the 707.

Now take a man like Paul, here is a real optimist. Listen, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." Paul was an optimist not because he believed in a machine, but because he believed in a MASTER. He had long since discovered that Jesus Christ would not let him down.

All of us sooner or later experience heartache and disappointment in life. This is a certainty. But in spite of heartache, the Christian has every reason to be optimistic. God's grace will prove to be sufficient to meet life's deepest needs.

Thank God for such a Wonderful Saviour who gives us every reason to be optimistic in a world seething in pessimism.

Optimistically yours,

James L. Pleitz

WATCH YOUR WORDS

A careless word may kindle strife;
A cruel word may wreck a life.
A bitter word may hate instill;
A brutal word may smite and kill.
A gracious word may smooth the way;
A joyous word may light the day.
A timely word may lessen stress;
A loving word may heal and bless.
