A PRAYER FOR OUR CHURCH

O Lord Help Us to Remember

With Bitterness, the duties we neglect,

With Sorrow, the hard words we speak,

With Shame, the unworthy thoughts we think,

With Gladness, the beauties of this day,

With Sweetness, the kind deeds we have seen done,

With Thankfulness, the work you have given us to do.

Use these memories to humble us, O Lord and keep them forever fresh in our hearts. Amen.

Pastor's Paragraphs

A "HOUSE-HUSBAND'S" TESTIMONY

My wife is doing fine. We brought her home from the hospital Friday afternoon. The doctor says that in a few weeks she will be as good as new.

You folks have been wonderful during these days. No pastor has ever been privileged to work with a more thoughtful congregation. Thank you — Thank you for everything!

I have a new appraisal for all housewives. (Men, if you are ever tempted to swap jobs with your wife — DON'T.) It is simply awful to have to wash dishes while the Pro teams are playing football. This is the best argument I can think of for a portable TV.

It has sure been a revelation to me. Every man should serve for a few days as a "house-husband." Take a simple thing like broiling a hamburger. I can fry them all right but this was my first attempt to broil one. Be very sure you don't have the meat too close to the electric coils, and by all means don't close the oven door. Would you believe it? The oven caught on fire twice while I was broiling one hamburger. I couldn't figure out what the smoke was doing coming out of that back burner when it was not even on. The neighbors must have thought I was offering up some sort of sacrifice. Someone should manufacture asbestos aprons for "house-husbands."

A good wife is a priceless possession. Solomon was right when he said, "Her price is far above rubies."

If there is anytime when we need the guidance of God, it is in the matter of marriage. Between now and the Lord's Day, read the 24th chapter of Genesis. The good Lord willing, I plan to preach Sunday on the subject, "When A Young Man Marries."

I'll look for you in the Meeting House Sunday — 1500 Bibles strong.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

Sunday, 7:30 a.m.

Station WNVY

Dr. Herschel H. Hobbs will be speaking on the subject

"Do you want to live forever?"

You are cordially invited to SIT - IN

with us at Adult Choir Rehearsal as several dozen meet in the choir room each Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. to prepare beautiful, inspired service music. These efforts are all aimed toward the goal of offering a worthy sacrifice to God through the best we can possibly offer and to direct the hearts of the many hundreds of worshippers God-ward.

Your presence, your energy, and your voice are needed in this most worthy endeavor. The warm reception awaiting you will be a

DEMONSTRATION

of our desire to include you in a most enjoyable experience.

✚ LIBRARY NOTES

A BIBLE DICTIONARY FOR YOUNG READERS by William N. McElrath is a unique Bible dictionary that does more than define words for the young reader. Its 2,000 entries include archaic words and words associated with Bible study—Trinity, ascension, etc. Scripture references are given when needed and geographical entries contain present-day locations. Extra encyclopedia-type material is given for all proper nouns together with a pronunciation key. Simple and exact definitions are written in the language boys and girls can understand.
