LIFE

God gives us each but one short day
The time that we call life —
To waste or cherish as we will,
To spend in peace or strife;
One little day in which to do.
Or else to leave undone,
The work He gives us; we must leave
It all at set of sun.
But one brief day in which to learn
That we are not our own,
That that day's sweetest pleasure is
To hush another's moan.
That life of selfish living brings
No blessed eventide,
While life of loving service finds
Deep joy on every side.
But one brief day! Oh help me, Lord
To use it as I should!
Help me, for others, in that day
To do some little good
And when at twilight cool and dim,
I hear thy gentle call,
Dear Lord, forgive me, if for thee
I've not used time and all.

Pastor's Paragraphs

TESTIMONY

"A MAN TOOK HIS FAMILY TO A RESTAURANT. They sat down at a clean table, ordered a sumptuous meal, ate with satisfaction and delight. When the waitress brought the check the man said, 'Oh, I don't believe in paying for meals. Please give the check to the man over there. He will probably be glad to pay it.' The waitress took the check to a man at nearby table. The man accepted the check and paid for it, even leaving a tip for the waitress. Incredible, I call it!

"A WOMAN WENT TO A SUPER-MARKET where all manner of goodies which characterize American eating were spread out in long rows. She filled her cart with everything from a case of gingerale to a prime roast of beef and a large bag of out-of-season fruit. When she came to the check-out desk the cashier rang up the bill and said, '$35.60 please.' The woman put on a horrified look and said, 'But I'm going to take a trip to Alabama next week, and I just don't have the money to pay for this food. I'll just let these folks behind me in line pay for it.' And behold, the folks in line behind reached for their pocketbooks and put out the money and paid the bill. Incredible!

"A FAMILY LIVED IN PLEASANTVILLE, one of the nicest towns in the world. The children attended the fine schools, the family enjoyed the paved streets, the excellent water and sewage facilities, the park and community hospital. They liked this town. But one day a tax bill arrived and they frowned and tore it up, and threw it away. 'I don't believe in paying taxes, let the neighbors pay,' they said. And the neighbors liked these people, so they got together and paid their taxes. Incredible!

"NOW THERE WAS A FAMILY THAT BELONGED TO FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH . . . Sorry, I just can't bear to tell this story — you tell it yourself. It is so utterly incredible, and it's true!"

—Selected

I am grateful that the vast majority of our people believe in the faithful support of the Lord's work. Many of you join the pastor in not only tithing but bringing an additional gift to the House of the Lord each week. I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday—1400 Bibles Strong.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleity

LIBRARY NOTES

NOW OR NEVER, THE PROMISE OF THE MIDDLE YEARS by Smiley Blanton. If you are between 35-60, this book may be the most important book you ever read. In it a world-famous psychiatrist proves that with a little self-awareness, these "last chance years" are the most rewarding of all. Warmly, informally, Dr. Blanton gives practical, detailed guidance on such down-to-earth matters as overcoming stress, finances, diet, exercise, raising teenagers, etc. He proves that by facing festering inner conflict, we can free ourselves and go unfettered to days bright with promise. His wise forthright book, dedicated to every man and woman over 35, is a source of priceless insight, self-understanding and encouragement.

PENSACOLA JUNIOR COLLEGE

One of the short courses to be offered by the Pensacola Junior College may be of particular interest to our people. Miss Helen May will be leading a course entitled "Youth — A Laboratory for Living," on Thursday evenings at seven o'clock for ten weeks beginning October 7. These are non-credit courses. The total fee is $12.50.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary Sunday will be given in memory of Mr. L. D. Rushing by Mrs. L. D. Rushing.

An elderly Quaker woman with a beautiful complexion was asked what kind of cosmetics she used. In reply, she offered this prescription: "I use for my lips, truth; for my voice, prayer; for my eyes, pity; for my hands, charity; for my figure, uprightness; for my heart, love." This prescription can be filled without expense, and the supply will increase with continued use.

WE CAN'T ASK GOD

- For help if we are not making any effort.
- For strength if have strength we are not using.
- For guidance if we are ignoring the guidance we now have.
- For prosperity if we have proved we cannot be trusted with it.
- For faith when we are afraid to act on what we already know.
- For forgiveness if we continue hating some.
- For mercy if we intend to commit the same sin again.
