Pastor's Paragraphs

Most holidays are simply celebrated. Not so Christmas. Henry Van Dyke reminds us that Christmas must be KEPT. Mr. Van Dyke said:

"It is a good thing to observe Christmas Day, but there is a better thing than the observance of Christmas Day, and that is, keeping Christmas.

"Are you willing to forget what you have done for other people, and to remember what other people have done for you; to put your rights in the background, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground; to see that your fellow men are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy; to own that probably the only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give to life — are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open — are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then, you can keep Christmas.

"And if you keep it for a day, why not always? But, you can never keep it alone."

I'll be looking for you and yours on the Lord's Day.

Most sincerely,

James L. Pleitz

LOTTIE MOON OFFERING HELPED BUILD

"Your Lottie Moon Offering goal is marvelous—surely do pray you all will reach it . . . Because you all back home gave to Lottie Moon Offering, we are going to move into our pretty little brand new Chapel for Christmas Eve services. All of our people are so proud of it, and it really is like a little miniature church, even with stained glass windows (a facsimile). We can hardly wait to hold services there. Tell your people, a million thanks for making our little church possible. It's the future Second Baptist Church of San Pedro."

—Excerpt from a letter written by
Mrs. Martha Haylock to Mrs.
John Yelverton.

Our Lottie Moon Offering goal is $8,500.
Through Sunday, December 19, we have given $6,100.88.
