THE LISTENING POST

JUST A FEW HIGHLIGHTS ABOUT YOUTH WEEK IN RETROSPECT

Did you know . . .

All the major offices of the staff were filled by young people who did an excellent job assuming these offices?

Did you know that . . .

Eighty-three young people were used in vital places of leadership during Youth Week? They either served as a member of the youth staff or gave devotionals in departments or taught a class in an Adult, Young People's or Intermediate department. From all reports they did a superb job.

SOME COMMENTS ABOUT OUR YOUTH WEEK

"I did get a lot out of teaching Adults. They are a bit wiser."

"It was more meaningful to more people than it was ever before."

"I think it was well-planned and well-organized and I thoroughly enjoyed it."

"The activities were great. Dr. Dilday was certainly a blessing."

"The youth activities as a whole were very good. I feel, however, that we should get more young people in the program."

"More activities for the older kids."

"Use more youth for important positions."

"It was very inspirational and I was quite satisfied."

"Add golf to the activities."

"The one that helped most of all was the fellowship at the Lenz' home."

"The speakers during the services should be previously checked or have some small practice with microphone in the auditorium."

"I thought Youth Week this year was much better than it ever has been so there is not much room for improvement."

YOUTH WEEK THROUGH THE EYES OF YOUR YOUTH DIRECTOR

Another thrilling experience and proof of the fact that young people can and will assume tremendous responsibilities and do an excellent job in the process.

Of course I want to extend my deep appreciation to each one who accepted and fulfilled a responsibility. I also want to thank the Lord for giving me the privilege of working with such a responsive group.

May I express, for the young people, their sincere appreciation to every teacher and worker in past years, every parent, every understanding adult, who by their faith and guidance in love, have done much to make such a week possible?

AS TO GOALS FOR ANOTHER YEAR

It is my dream that we shall see greater numbers of our young people joining hands with us and a more unified effort and "esprit de corps" among all our youth that will be such a contagious element it shall be reaching many for Christ we could not otherwise touch.

It was a great week, thanks to each of you! I'm glad I'm here.

HELEN MAY,
Youth Director

LIBRARY NOTES

This summer we have a "Visit the Zoo Reading Club" for the Primaries and a "Books of the Bible Club" for the Juniors. Quite a number are taking part, but many more should be participating. Summer-time is an opportune time for you parents to engage in the most fascinating and profitable of all hobbies or entertainment—read good books. The Juniors may gain six points if a parent reads a book from the Church Library. Why not make it a family affair? You still have time as we will run these clubs 'til after Vacation Bible School. There are carefully selected books for all ages in your Church Library, so come in and browse around and check out some good books.
