FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

JAMES L. PLEITZ
PASTOR

A HYMN OF TRUST

"In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength."
Isaiah 30:15

In quietness and confidence
My strength shall ever be!
No weariness shall overcome
The soul that's stayed on Thee,
Though trials sore and hardships come
My strength He shall renew;
His presence shall envelop me—
No ill shall e'er pass through.

My case into His hands I've given,
He knoweth all my need;
And He who notes the sparrow's fall
Shall still provide and lead.
Though sudden sorrow pierce my heart,
Though storm-clouds rise and thunders roll,
In quietness and confidence
Shall be my strength of soul.

Though friends may fail, the world be dark,
I know for me He cares,
And as a father pitieh
In all my grief He shares,
And so, whatever may betide,
Or whether weal or woe.
In quietness and confidence
Shall be the strength I know.

Pastor's Paragraphs

HOME AGAIN

To say it is good to be home is an understatement. To say it is wonderful to be home still is not quite strong enough, but perhaps you will get the point!

God blessed during the days of revival in Pine Bluff. The First Baptist Church in that city has a wonderful heritage and they are doing an outstanding job to make the ministry of the church relevant in our day and age.

Dr. John McClanahan is the pastor of the congregation. He is a splendid young pastor. Perhaps you have read some of his materials which have been used in our Sunday School quarterlies.

I am grateful for the fine job done by Mr. Bizzell and the other staff members during my absence. As I have said many times before, no pastor has ever had a finer staff to work by his side than your pastor.

The Lane Adams Crusade is our big concern just now. My heart was blessed by the service last night. This effort deserves our all-out cooperation.

Sunday promises to be a good day in the life of First Baptist Church. I am going to be looking forward to seeing you in the Father's House.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

We Need Homes for Get-Togethers

We REALLY need homes for get-togethers for our young people. If your home is available please cal Miss May and set up a date. The enchr will provide the drinks and any other help needed. A large home is not a necessity — young people do not mind sitting on the floor and crowding in. You need not necessarily have a young person of this age group in your home. We'd be happy to come if you would like to have us.

"The Law and the Prophets" begins with the dawn of time itself . . . with the creation of the world and man, and includes the Fall of man; the stories of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; The Bondage of the Children of Israel; The Birth of Moses; The Exodus; and the Giving of the Ten Commandments on Mt. Sinai; as well as the stories of Saul, David and Solomon.

TOMORROW

The love of God has hung a veil
Around tomorrow,
That we may not its beauty see,
Nor trouble borrow.
But, oh, 't's sweeter far, to trust
His unseen Hand.
And know that all the path of life
His wisdom planned.
I know not if tomorrow's way
Be steep, or rough;
But when His hand is guiding me,
That is enough.
And so, although the veil has hid
Tomorrow's way,
I walk with perfect faith and trust
Through each today.

—H. H. Pentney

LIBRARY NOTES

Everyone who seeks a greater understanding of Christian conversion will find the book CONVERSION by E. Stanley Jones very stimulating and enlightening. "No one need remain what he is, or is about to be," Dr. Jones says, "for the door to change is open — conversion. And no person and no thing can keep you from entering that door — except your own refusal to enter."

Written against our jet-age background, this book is richly illustrated with actual cases of conversion among ministers, murderers, actors, Moslems, 80-year-olds, 8-year-olds, Hindus, millionaires, beggars, policemen, intellectuals, missionaries, and many others from all over the world.

LANE ADAMS CRUSADE CONTINUES

The Lane Adams Crusade services at Tiger Stadium continue through April 30 with services at 7:30 p.m. each week-night and at 3:00 p.m. on Sundays. Sunday School classes and/or other groups desiring group reservations so that your group may be seated together in the reserved seat section may request tickets through our church office or through the Crusade Office.

As the Builder goes to press, we are trying to ascertain whether it is practical and feasible for our Nursery to be open for the services. Acting upon request we have opened it this week, but it has not been used. Perhaps, the best procedure would be for Sunday School classes on next Sunday to make plans to attend as a class group, letting us know if your plans and of the needs for Nursery care. We would need at least two days notice, however. Check Sunday morning if there is any question about this.

FAITH

What if I say

That Jesus Christ is Lord divine;
Yet fellow-pilgrims can behold
Naught of the Master's love in me,
No grace of kindly sympathy?
If I am of the Shepherd's fold.
Then shall I know the Shepherd's voice
And gladly make His way my choice.
We are saved by faith, yet faith is one
With life, like daylight and the sun.
Unless they flower in our deeds,
Dead, empty husks are all the creeds.
To call Christ, Lord, but strive not to obey,
Belies the homage that with words I pay.
