FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

PALAFIX AND LA RUA STREETS
PENSACOLA, FLORIDA

JAMES L. PLEITZ
PASTOR

Answered Prayer

If you rise from prayer, forgiven and clean inside, prayer has been answered.

If you rise, more conscious of His greatness
His goodness, mercy, His love, His nearness, prayer has been answered.

If you rise with greater love and compassion for your fellow-man, answered prayer is transforming your selfish nature.

If you rise with an abiding sense of peace even in the midst of great problems of sorrow,
God has answered by helping you meet them.

If you rise with clearer vision, greater purpose,
positive direction, renewed strength, fresh inspiration, prayer has been answered.

("And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us: And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have petitions that we desired of him.")

I John 5:14-15)

A GOOD BEGINNING

Last Sunday was a good day. Our organizations are off to a good start. The saddest note of last Sunday was to say good-by to our pastor for a whole month. We rejoice in this opportunity which has come to him to make this trip and shall remember to pray for him and for the Crusade in East Africa. You will remember, also, to write to him. (See Pastor's Paragraph in last week Builder). You will also remember to support the work here with your prayers and your presence.

PICTORIAL DIRECTORY TO BE PUBLISHED

Wouldn't you like to have a directory, complete with pictures, of the membership of our church? We've talked about such a publication, and now it is to be done. The Religious Pictorial Directory Company will work with us in making this directory possible. Photographs of family groups will be made November 3-11. You'll be hearing more about this in the days and weeks immediately ahead. We are anxious that every person represented in the membership of our church and the organizations appear in this directory. I am sure that we can count on your cooperation.

A recent bulletin of First Baptist Church Gainesville, Florida had the following article:

PROFESSIONAL LOYALTY

"I looked over the congregation Sunday morning and it looked like 1966 rather than 1967. There was Bill Carr in the place he usually sat last year. Bill, All-American center is currently on the taxi squad for the New Orleans professional football team. When Bill was here in college he could most always be counted on in the worship—no matter how late the team came in from a trip away. So, when he came to see his old team play its first game, what else would he do but come to church—professional loyalty I call it. This Christian young man will always be an example to young and old alike. Let's see who will copy him this year."

We concur in the sentiment expressed in the above article. He was here in church last Sunday.

LIBRARY NOTES

DARE TO LIVE NOW! by Bruce Larsen answers some of the more basic questions such as "Who am I?", "Why do I do the things I do?", "Why do other people do what they do?", "Is God concerned about me and the trap I'm in? If He is, what can He do to help me?"

Since God has liberated all men through Jesus Christ, no one really has to be a prisoner of circumstances or environment. The good news is that we are already free! The only condition seems to be that we admit our status as prisoners and then risk leaving the security of old patterns and walk out in God's sunlight and freedom. It is not easy to live responsibly and in freedom. It is a challenge!

This book is written in the belief that Jesus Christ can change life now for any person, family, church or group who will care to discover how to appropriate the power and love which are His.

PEPPER AND SALT by Vance Havner has been culled from fifty years preaching and writing of one of America's most colorful and effective evangelists. These pointed stories, conversations, experiences, and thoughts, all have a strong evangelical flavor.

"Salvation is not a cafeteria where you take what you want and leave the rest."

"When the Lord's white sheep become dirty gray, all black sheep feel more comfortable."

"God called us to play the game, not to keep the score."

"There are too many people ready to assert their rights who are not ready to assume their responsibility."
