Pastor's Paragraphs

U. S. JUDGES GO TO JAIL

The headline of the article immediately caught my eye. As a rule judges send people to jail, they don't go there.

Sometime ago 34 federal judges went behind the walls of the U. S. penitentiary in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. These men went to jail not because they had committed any crime but because they wanted to find out personally what happens to a man when he is sent to prison.

Each judge was paired off with a prisoner for lunch. They spent the day touring the institution. They saw the spacious library with 20,000 books. They saw the scoreboard that read "Visitors and Feds."

The judges walked through the prison gates at 9:30 a.m. They left late the same afternoon.

In a sense this is the story of Christmas. Two thousand years ago ONE left the happiness and security of heaven to come and live with sinful mankind. He stayed not one day, but 33 years. When night came He did not leave the prison and return to the Father's House. He stayed on and willingly suffered for our transgressions. Prior to His birth the angel said: "You shall call his name, Jesus, for He shall save his people from their sins."

Thank God for this gift of Jesus to the world.

Let us make very sure that on His birthday we honour Him in every way.

I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday in the services.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Faithfully your pastor,

THE LISTENING POST

OUR YOUTH NOT ONLY TAKE— THEY GIVE!

HERE'S SOME REAL PROOF:

Juniors at Junior Camp gave out of their spending money a total of $55.00 as a mission offering to educate an African child.

Juniors at a Christmas Party gave 105 gifts to the children at the 8th Avenue Baptist Church.

B & P Dept. planned and sponsored a party in "The Cellar" for teens from the 8th Avenue Baptist Church.

Numerous baskets were given to individual families by Sunday School and Training Union Departments of Junior and Youth ages.

White Christmas for the 90 and 9 Ranch was furnished by the Sr. High and College Group prior to their Christmas Buffet in "The Cellar."

The gifts were secured through a Scavenger Hunt and wrapped in white paper. The picture shows some boys from 90 and 9 Ranch picking up the Christmas gifts.

Jr. High Group (about 40), loaded on Mr. Joe Napier's truck, went carolling to our shut-ins, prior to their Christmas Buffet at the home of Tempie Roberts.

Much of the work done in "The Cellar" was youth labor, sponsored by helpful adults (Mr. Joe Ladner, Mr. Joe Napier, Mr. Mike Cranmer).

Jr. High GA's are raising $50.00 to purchase bedroom slippers for all 103 patients at County Nursing Home.

THANKS!

Lawren Meacham, Jack Howes, Mrs. James L. Pleitz, and the committee responsible want to take this means of expressing their deep appreciation to everyone who helped in any way to make the Christmas Buffet a success: those parents who brought food, Mrs. Manning for preparing the meats, the decorations committee, the youth for such beautiful cooperation, and Mr. Paul Royal for assisting greatly with the ideas and planning.

Mrs. Len Roberts also had praise for the manner in which the carolling and buffet party at her home was handled. To one and all a sincere word of thanks. You never cease to amaze your Youth Director with your gracious thoughtfulness.
