VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL BEGINS MONDAY, AUGUST 5th

NURSERY AND BEGINNER CHILDREN will be taken directly to their departments. (NOTE: The 3-year VBS Departments are for those children now enrolled in the 3-year Sunday School Departments. Nursery facilities below this age are for the children of faculty members only.)

PRIMARIES AND JUNIORS will go directly into the Sanctuary upon arrival. Places will be marked. Those who get here before 8:20 may wish to go to the Library which will be open at 8:00.

INTERMEDIATES AND SENIORS are to go directly to their meeting place (South end of Fellowship Hall).

Parents and workers need to remember that VBS departments parallel Sunday School departments. In other words all children now in Beginner 4A and 4B go to the 4-year VBS departments even though they are a year older now.

LIBRARY NOTES

What is a symbol? Symbols take many forms and serve many uses. A handshake signifies friendship; a wedding ring is a symbol of the marriage vows. Numbers are symbols for quantities and measurements. Even words are symbols—symbols used to express thoughts and ideas.

In YOUNG READERS BOOK OF CHRISTIAN SYMBOLISM, Michael Daves tells the story of Christian symbols and their relationship to the church and its history and traditions.

Explanations of the origins of symbols, fascinating stories about many of them, and Gordon Laite's handsome drawings provide the reader, young or old, with a rich and meaningful insight into the use of Christian symbols in the twentieth century.

SERMON TOPICS

The Pastor Will Be Preaching
At Both Services Sunday

Sunday Morning He Will Be Speaking On

"A Visit To Philippi"
(Acts 16:9-34)

SURRENDER SELF

What the Lord wants in our lives and our money is but an expression of life. They must not be separated. One cannot buy himself off from personal surrender with any money gifts any more than one can let professed consecration get by without cash. God wants our money only because he wants us. Salvation is essentially in union with God through Christ. Repentance is an utter surrender of the self-will. Faith issues at once in action—action for him, as in sin it was action for self.

—Earle V. Pierce

DOUBT AND FAITH

Doubt sees the obstacles—
Faith sees the way!
Doubt sees the darkest night!
Faith sees the day!
Doubt dreads to take a step—
Faith soars on high!
Doubt questions, "Who believes?"
Faith answers "I."

FAITH

Faith came singing into my room,
And other guests took flight;
Fear, Anxiety, Grief, and Gloom
Sped out into the night.
I wondered that such peace could be,
But faith said gently, "Don't you see?
They really could not live with me."

—Tower Tidings

A LETTER TO THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

DEAR NOMINATING COMMITTEE:

It was about this time last year that you asked me to accept a place of service in my church. At first, I made all kinds of excuses. But then you led me to see the challenge of my place of service.

I had never realized before the importance of a growing Christian having a definite place of service, but you helped me to see that by serving and giving myself I would get back far more in return than I would give.

I have heard it said, "But we must have someone for this place." This approach did not impress upon me the importance of this place of responsibility. It seemed to me a job that really did not matter.

Your approach was different! You really caused me to think when you said, "We know you love people and are anxious to pass on to them what Christ has done for you." You made me see that it is important for our church to have the best leadership we can give in every place of service.

You did not ask for an immediate answer, but urged me to take time to pray about it and seek God's leadership. You asked me to study the duties of my place of service, and pointed out that my church would provide help in the form of training courses and personal counseling. I felt that you were really concerned in helping me do a good job.

Now that I have been serving nearly a year, let me share with you some of the happy moments, and thank you again for the privilege of experiencing them.

My heart jumped with joy when that member in my department walked the aisle and gave Christ his all. I thought, "this is what it is all for." Then again when I received a valentine from one of my group with the words "I love You" scrawled across the bottom, I realized I had more than money can buy.

I was deeply moved when one of my group prayed in public for the first time. It was haltingly done, but I knew he had spoken with our Lord. I recall other times when I tried to help in "little" ways that seemed to mean so much.

They have taught me to be more loving, more patient, more tolerant. I have learned much about humility, gratitude, and the need for dependence on God.

It is my prayer that I will do a better job next year, and I wouldn't go back to "just sitting" for anything.

Sincerely yours,
Dedicated Worker
