ON PULLING WEEDS AND SOLVING THE WORLD'S PROBLEMS

Our world is seething with problems. In fact, we face so many problems that we are tempted to throw up our hands in despair and quit. After all, what can one person do to solve such problems as race, war, and riots — just to name a few?

The whole sickening situation reminds me of our yard. Some time ago we plowed the whole thing up and planted grass. Now it is turning green, but the green in this case is one part grass and two parts weeds. When I look at the yard, it's mighty discouraging. I honestly don't know where to start pulling weeds. I can't possibly clean them all out.

But I'll tell you what I can do, I can pull out every single weed in an area which is six feet square. I don't even have to leave a tiny one when I work an area this size. (It just occurred to me that if I could get the men of the church out to work on my yard, we could pull all the weeds in a matter of hours!)

Now my friend, you and I can't solve the problems of the world, but by God's grace we can clear out ONE LITTLE SPOT. Start right where you are. It's not necessary to go into the neighbor's yard in order to find something to do. Stand there and cry about the hopelessness of the situation if you want to, I'm going to start pullin'.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

LIBRARY NOTES

Lillian Basson who has written an attractive book titled "Pick a Raincoat, Pick a Whistle" says "If you lived in the jungle of South America, you could pick a leaf and use it for a raincoat. A canassu leaf is big enough to wrap around you, and it is also waterproof." Here is a lyrical exploration of some of the many ways leaves are used by people around the world. Leaves for food, leaves for medicine, leaves for shelter — and leaves just for fun. "You can pick a leaf for a whistle — a blade of grass will do. Just hold it up between your thumbs and blow."

"The picnic bear" by Ruth Carroll is the story of Fuzzy who loved more than anything else in the world — picnics — all kinds of picnics, but especially big picnics. Every day the little bear and his mother squeezed out of the thick laurel bushes where they slept, and set out to look for a picnic. Sometimes they found blueberry picnics or buttercup picnics or strawberry picnics, and sometimes, when they found a brook, they had a delicious crawfish — and a trout picnic. But Fuzzy was never satisfied, for he always wanted a bigger picnic. Finally one day, all by himself, he found the biggest, very best picnic a little black bear could have.

Fuzzy's lively personality and mischievous adventures will delight young readers, especially those who know how much fun a picnic can be.

Our church will be the meeting place for the Central Leadership School sponsored by the Pensacola Bay Baptist Association, October 14, 15, and 17. This school, one of the activities being held in connection with the Crusade of Americas, will bring Baptists from our own Southern Baptist churches and from the National Baptist churches in our community. As you know the Crusade of Americas is a uniting of all Baptist groups in the Western Hemisphere.

During school there will be groups for Sunday School workers and Training Union workers.

SEVEN REASONS FOR KNOWING GOD'S WORD

It's values are pre-eminent — the most important document in the world's history.

It is the way of certainty — its precious truth leads one to a positive life.

It is the way of life — the only Book containing the promise of eternal life.

It is the way of victory — its use a sure method of withstanding temptation.

It is the way of holiness — the effective mold by which our lives are shaped in righteousness and true holiness.

It is the way of Knowledge — it is God's Book and through it do we know His will.

It is the way of Heaven — the only source of information concerning heaven and the life after death.

SOME PARENTS SAY—

“We will not influence our children in making choices and decisions in matters of religion! He can join a choir if he wants to. I” not push him.”

—Why not?

The ads will

The press will!

The school will!

The movies will!

The neighbors will!

The forces of sin will!

The politicians will!

We use our influence over flowers, vegetables, cattle, etc. Shall we ignore our own children?

May God forgive us if we do!
