Pastor's paragraphs

FREE GASOLINE TOMORROW

Outside a service station in a certain town is a sign which reads, "Free Gasoline Tomorrow." It shouldn't be necessary to underline a perfectly obvious catch, yet somehow it is. Of course, nobody ever gets free gas at this station, because it is always promised tomorrow.

A notice that offers free petrol tomorrow is no good, nor is a religion that offers happiness tomorrow or power tomorrow; the recurring note in the New Testament is NOW!

Our Lord puts the emphasis on NOW. Take your Bible and note this fact. Jesus said, "Do you NOW believe?" (John 16:31) This He asked of those who had no past to look to, and no certainty of a future. The setting in which the Christian's life becomes operative in God's program is provided in that word . . . NOW. The Christian's great moment is NOW. "Now is the accepted time, behold NOW is the day of salvation." (2 Corinthians 6:2) Paul's own witness is "The life which I now live, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Galatians 2:20) "Beloved, NOW are we sons of God." (1 John 3:2)

The Divine Imperative for us, for our church, for our community, for you, for me is NOW. Why? God's Time Is Now!

I'll look forward to seeing you in the service Sunday.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Plaitz

Frustration at times but a very real sense of reward is the lot of those who work with this active, seeking, group of youth. Quite adequate to adjust to fluctuating needs of such a group is the leadership: MR. AND MRS. CLIFF LENZ, MRS. JIM DREXLER, MRS. T. W. McWATERS, MISS DEAN RECTOR, MRS. JAMES L. PLEITZ, MR. JULIAN WILSON, MR. W. L. LEE, SR. and MRS. W. E. DURRETT. How fortunate these young people are to have as their leaders those who not only know the Lord and the Book, but are concerned enough to be faithful to its teachings and loyal in their support. Strong emphasis in this department is given to preparation of teachers for lesson presentation. Realization that this age is one filled with questions, the teachers and workers in this department attempt to expose their pupils to such teaching methods as to provoke discussion and participation. We are fortunate indeed to have such dedicated workers serving with these of such impressionable years.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THESE honored for their proficiency in foreign languages: Paula Wiginton, Russian; Maria Perez, Italian; Andy White, Russian.

DON'T FORGET THE GARAGE SALE, Saturday, April 26, in Mr. Royal's garage. Items ranging from kitchen ware, furniture, clothing, games, books, records, patterns to lamps, hardware, lawn mower, vaporizer and electric irons will be available. In addition to these things for sale, there will be homemade ice cream, bakery items, lemonade, etc. WE WILL BE LOOKING FOR YOU!

No get togethers this week.

Next Car Wash is set for May 10 and will be a dual one at Ben Gibbs Pure Oil and Abney's Enco. Tickets are available now for those young people wishing to sell them.

VISITATION GROUP OF NIGHT SOCIETY

The visitation group of the Night Society will meet Tuesday, April 29, 1969 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Sarah Address, 3011 Blackshear.

ADULTS ON SUNDAY NIGHTS

Our adults are having a real fine experience on Sunday nights at our Training Union Hour. They are discussing the current school situation in Escambia County. Next Sunday, Mr. W. J. Darden will continue the discussion on school finances. Join our adults at 6:00 o'clock in Fellowship Hall (basement of the Educational Building).
