Celebrating Ten Years

Pastor's paragraphs

FROM THE BETTER HALF

For years I have been writing the Pastor's Paragraphs. I have asked Margaret Ann to write this column this week.

Dearest Congregation:

Since this is the first time in ten years that I have had the opportunity to say something to all of you, perhaps this one column won't be long enough.

How well I remember the days when through constant prayer God so definitely led us to Pensacola. Because of His leadership and continuing companionship, it has been good between pastor and people.

Perhaps you would be interested in some of my observations of Jim these ten years. I have observed Jim in his many concerns for his people; concern over personal problems which you have experienced; concern over serious illness and bereavement; deep concern which brought sleepless nights over those who were lost and others who no longer seemed to feel God important in their lives.

I have observed him as he has enjoyed his pastoral duties of being counselor, confidant, friend, prayer partner, and shepherd of his flock. I have seen his love grow so strong and so deep for you people, and have heard him say numerous times: "I'd put my men up against anybody's" and "to sit on the platform and look into the faces of such an attractive and impressive congregation always thrills me."

To serve as his companion and helpmate is an honor. For the two of us to serve you as a congregation has been and is our greatest honor and blessing from a good God.

We were overwhelmed by your graciousness to us Sunday evening. The service was an inspiration, the reception was lovely, and the gift—what can I say about the gift—I keep walking outside to look at it for I can't believe it's really true! I just pray that I don't put the first dent in it. Not just because it's a beautiful car, but because it represents a dear group of people whom we love and to whom we're most grateful.

Sincerely,
Margaret Ann Pleitz
